THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

The sophomore class is a beginning — the beginning of three years at Midpark, of new ideas and projects, of new spirit, and of more ways to make Midpark a better school. The members of the class of '72 enter a Midpark that has many traditions, but they will add more. They enter a school where plans are being carried out, but they will initiate their own. They will help complete what has already been started, and they will finish many things that were started before they came. But they will use the ideas they have for beginning new projects; they will use the spirit they have to make Midpark grow beyond the walls of the school. The sophomores represent what Midpark will become. They are the potential and the future and all their efforts and achievements will help to make Midpark a better school.

Unsuspectingly receiving a jolt from the Hi-Y's hot seat is sophomore Don Leahy as senior Tim Root chuckles to himself.

Sophomores Are Found Everywhere.

Not very many students have ever seen or even know that Midpark has its own greenhouse, atop the new wing. Here, Tom Montgomery waters some of the many plants in the Midpark greenhouse.

Students at Midpark have many opportunities to get a diversified education in both academics and vocational skills, as is seen by Mike Schneider as he works on a lathe.

Speaking to the Junior class on the necessity of good planning for this year's Snowball is President Mike Furfaro.

*The most difficult part is over:
Getting used to Midpark
Organizing the class
Electing the first class officers
The sophomores come back as juniors;
Ready to plan the Snowball
Eager to raise money for their senior year
More a part of Midpark
Spirit is more intense
And the juniors are more aware
More prepared to do their very best
To make theirs the greatest junior class
To make Midpark the best school.*

Obviously not of the Hot House variety are Junior class officers: Mike Furfaro, President; Denise Zgodzinski, Vice-President; Debbie Grosshandler, Secretary; Jerri Miller, Treasurer, and Frank Mrak, Sgt. at Arms.

The Senior Class of 1970 has surely proved "They have the spirit to make Midpark great." With this kind of spirit following them through the difficult years as a sophomore, the identity years of a junior, and the success of a senior, another great class is to leave Midpark.

By looking back to the sophomore years, the class started on the right foot by bringing into effect the first sophomore class dues. The junior varsity football team gave them great pride and hope by bringing home the G.C.C. title in football.

As juniors, the class brought back, with huge success, the production of "Laugh-In Side-Out," known as Mid-Idiom. Successful paper drives and other money-making activities, raised money for the best Snoball.

Finally, as seniors, retaining the Grindstone Trophy and winning the Conference Football Title, they added to their list of success.

The only thing left to give or to leave is a number of empty desks which once were filled by hard-working people. This, juniors and sophomores must fill.

As another great class leaves Midpark, it also leaves memories never to forget.

HE LEARNS MANY THINGS...

Administration

A school that is constantly growing needs a skillful administration to keep it running smoothly. Midpark is fortunate to have dedicated administrators who really care about the school and the students, and always try to do the best job possible. In the era of the generation gap, many of the chasms have been bridged by listening and responding to all the ideas on how to make a better Midpark.

A

SUPERINTENDENT AND BOARD OF EDUCATION

Guidance Department

Many of the problems of Midpark students are expertly solved by the Guidance Department. From scheduling to grades, the guidance counselors are always willing to help. Their aid has rescued many students in distress.

The head of the Guidance Department, Mr. Ralph Fullmer (Photo A) chats with someone during the day. Showing that counselors have an easy life (B) is Mr. Jeff Holzworth, while Mrs. Elizabeth Day, (C) talks with the photographer. Busy at work in the late afternoon (D) is Mr. Richard Coombs. Shown as she is known by her students, "the one with the smile," is Mrs. Barbara Kempf (E). The person who makes all of the appointments and does the clerical work for the guidance staff is (F) secretary Mrs. Ginny Schiffelbein.

Secretaries And Office Aides

For the efficient operation of Midpark there has to be an efficient office staff. The five secretaries and the office aides work to keep Midpark running smoothly. The office aides are students who work during their study halls to run errands, answer the phone, and do many other things to help. They are a part of Midpark that extends beyond the classroom.

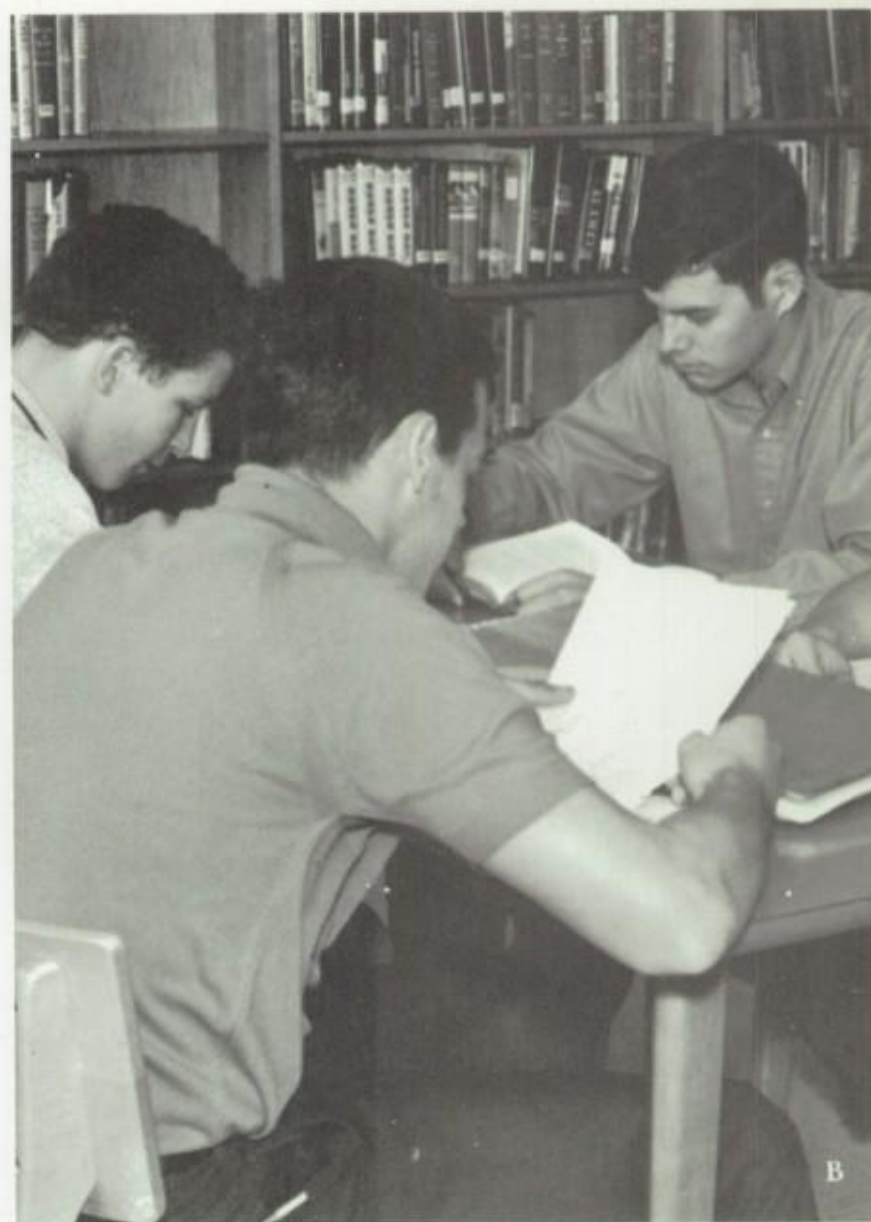

During a lull in work, Midpark's secretaries pose (Photo A) for the camera. Left to Right they are Mrs. Fuderer, Mrs. Garcia, Mrs. Dregalla, Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Washburn and missing from the picture, Mrs. Vanucci. Mrs. Grugel, (B) a para-professional, checks hall passes of students during classtime. The entire student aide staff of Jackie Ress, Debbie Neubeck, Lynne Lauritz, Sharon Spisak, Linda Soeder, Janet Reynolds, Debbie Higginbotham, Debbie Fassnacht, Ella Blackmer, Bonnie Bare, Shirley Beyer, and Sandy Snelly, try to find something to do.

Librarians And Library Aides

Midpark's library is essential to its faculty and student body. The librarians and student aides make sure it operates efficiently and effectively. The library is large enough to accommodate large groups of people and it has tremendous supply of resource material along with books for pleasure-reading.

The library aides (Photo A) are Kathy O'Neal, Diane Albright, Nina Jurick, Darrell Cirolino, Ella Blackmer, Val Campbell, Pat Sunkle, Brenda Haley, and Julie Case. Jim Hurst, Tom Lloyd, and Don Kuczma (B) study in the library. Busily working (C) are the Librarians Miss Nancy Backus, Mrs. Hasel, and Miss Lynn Schreiber.

Without the Audio-visual Department, and the P.A. Announcers, Midpark might be without many of the films, recordings, and morning announcements. The A.V. Department takes the responsibility of providing all the audio visual equipment that makes learning more vivid and interesting.

Each morning radio station WMHS brings the student body all the important announcements and information for the upcoming day.

The Helping Hands At Midpark

It takes many people to keep a school as large as Midpark running smoothly, and some of these people are the cafeteria workers and the custodians. Each day hundreds of meals must be prepared to feed the students and teachers and this is a job that is always carried out very well. To keep the school clean is an undertaking that is never finished, but the custodians manage to stay ahead of the student body. These two groups of people help to make Midpark a better school.

(Photo A) Mrs. Lang takes care of the financials after a busy day. (B) Mr. Al Zajecek, head custodian, Mrs. Jeanine Hoertz, Mrs. Emma Jusak, and (E) Mr. Froehlick keep the school running smoothly. (C) The cooks include: Back row from left to right: Alice Jenkins, Belva Blodgett, Charlotte Falkowski, Agnes Yanke, Betty Rubel, Agnes Krisko, Mary Aust, Elsie Miller, Maybell Siebert, Lisette Kaesberger. Front row from left to right: Miyako Naylor, Ann Mish, Misa Bullock, Marie Pulling, Marge Uhas, Hermine Horvat, and Ruth Lange. (D) Mrs. Aust cleans up after lunch.

Boys' State and Girls' State

Each year the American Legion sponsors a program in practical American Government for high school students. These students spend the summer on a university campus and set up their own American Government. Here they get the chance to see how the democratic system of government works in reality.

At Midpark, six boys and five girls were chosen to attend Buckeye Boys' State and Buckeye Girls' State at Capital University.

Participating in last year's Buckeye Boys' State (Photo A) were Greg Hanselman, Harold Kruger, and Dave Barta. Missing from the picture were Bill Barlow, Alan Dudas, and Allen Lungo. Buckeye Girls' State was attended by Diane Volk, Chris Hobson, and Laura Meixner. Missing when the picture was taken were Debbie Williams and Leilani Zenkert.

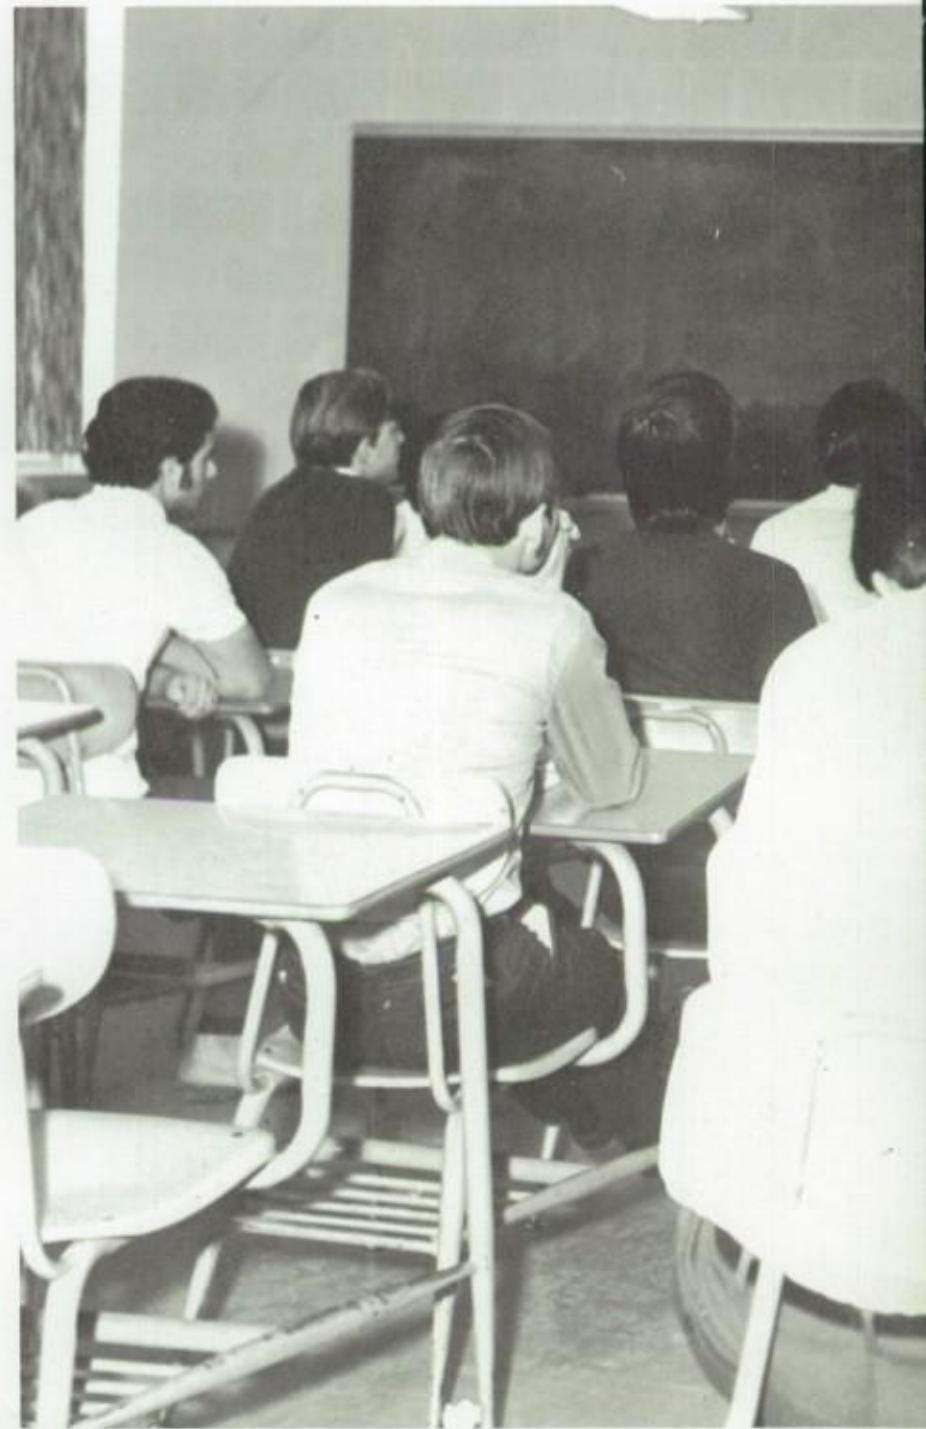

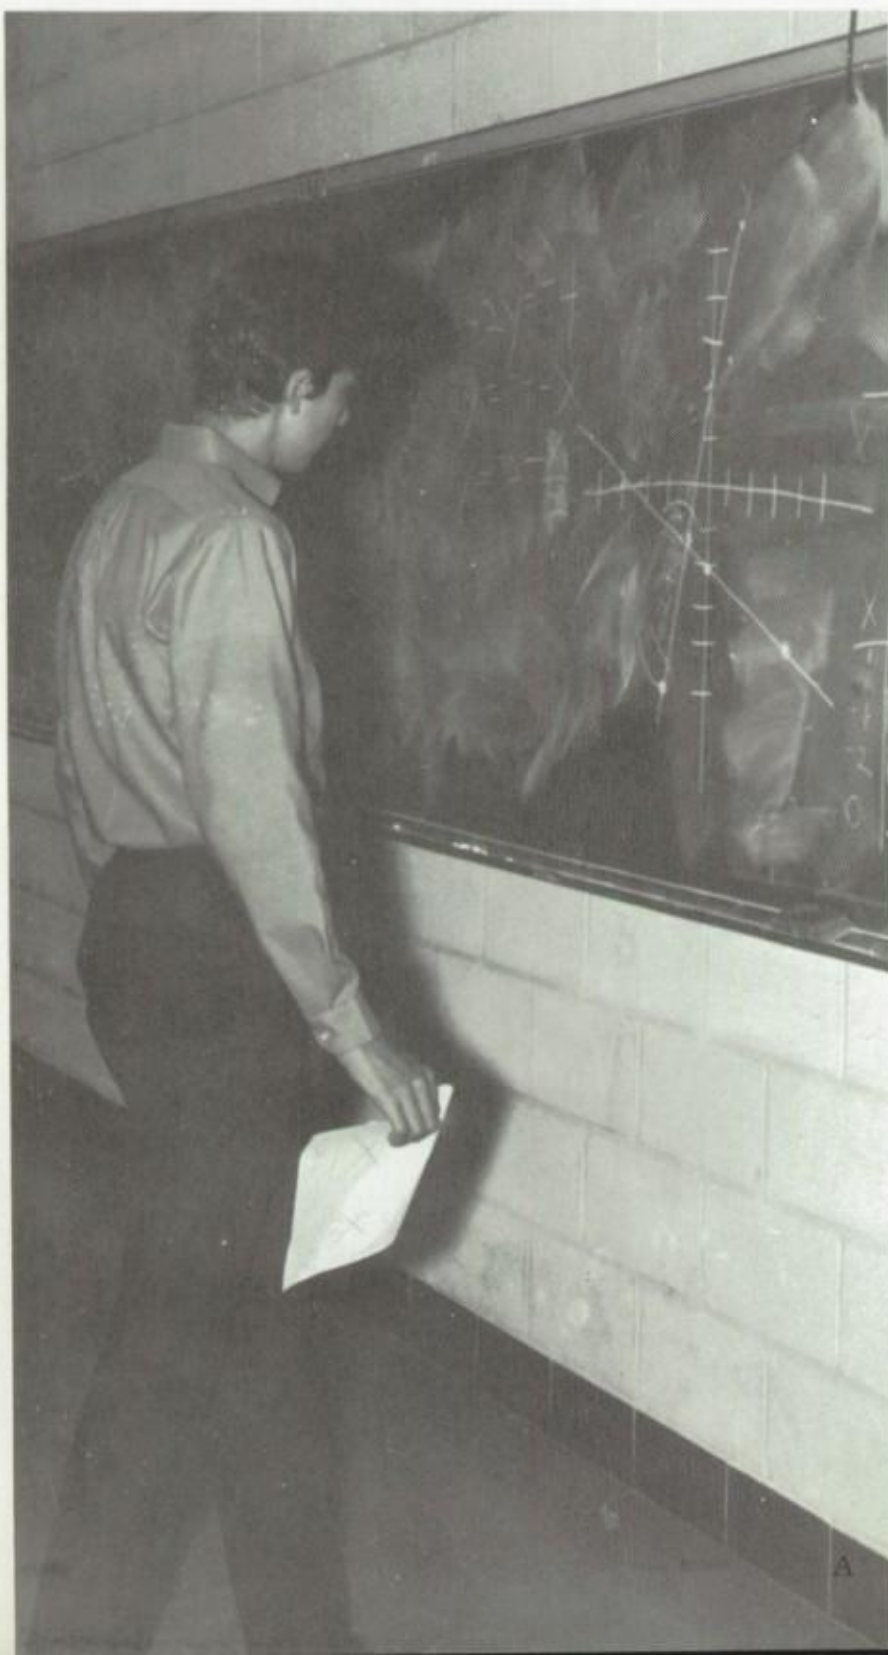

Student Council Voices School Opinions

Midpark's student body has a voice in the operation of Midpark through Student Council. This organization allows students to present their problems and suggestions to the administration in an orderly way to provide for the efficient growth and change at Midpark.

(Photo A) A Student Council meeting is being conducted in the auditorium. Student council officers (B) are (standing) Lynn Parry (Sec.), Kit Eridon (V. Pres.), (sitting) Linda Ulman (Member-at-large), Greg Hanselman (Pres.), Pat Mead (Member-at-large), Chris Hoffman (Treas.), and Shelia Subin (Member-at-large) (missing) Frank Mrak (Member-at-large). Other council members include: Michelle Lumb, Sandy Hassing, Kris Eridon, Roger Koptish, Marcia Mergler, Addie Trocano, Steve LaBuda, Sue Todys, Sandy Gergel, Pat Forrai, Sue Boehmer, Cindy Zgodzinski, Paula Merkle, Jo Ann Falkowski, Martha Plagman, Pat Smolar, Nelda Corbett, Candy David, Bonnie Bare, Mary Ann Braun, Cyndy Abram, Debbie Gauchat, Debbie Poe, Jan Kerestes, Kathy Surgeon, Debbie Grosshandler, Cindy Dunkin, Carol Otte, Sharon Malone, Diana Kruze, Cindy Gergel, Mary Jo Pollarine, Rob Hunter, Pam Watters, Cindy O'Neal, Marge Rosicka, Candy Shinn, Cindy Repp, Miriam Galarza, Joan Russell, Sue Lauritz, Pat Hugo, Norma Weekly, Joanne Settoni, Kris Barr, Stephanie Shields, Diane Summers, Linda Spiegel, Steve Christensen, Diane Kendall, Kathy Holt, Paul Senyak, Jeanne Urban, Mary Anne Demma, Pam Hook, Nancy Manzetti, Joyce Hist, Theresa Cavanaugh, Al Lewis, Mike Hess, Karen Cadle, Linda Helmink, and Scott Kania.

In a world that puts much emphasis on mathematics and science, students must be given the opportunity to learn the things they will need to know in the future. The Math Department offers this chance by capably teaching the basic to the complex. By keeping up with new methods and ideas, the math teachers make their courses relevant and worthwhile.

Science Department

The Midpark Science Department is keeping up with the world that stresses technology. Twelve science teachers conduct classes in astrology, biology, chemistry, physics, and science problems to offer the student a thorough background. The department has extended itself beyond the classroom with the experiences of Mr. Cullen Johnson teaching in England, new audio tutorial devices, and a program in astronomy which is open to the elementary schools.

Dan Hobbs, Alice Bruvarny, and Jim Saunders find the answers in their science problems class (Photo A). This class experiment (B) which involves the rapid growth of plants, is shown by Mr. Ernie Enold. During the year, students tested the intelligence of a mouse as he tried to cross through a maze (C). Roger Hurst, Tom Melter, and Jim Sobera, perform a physics experiment (D). Mr. Cullen Johnson (E) lectures to his chemistry class.

Social Studies Department

The Midpark Social Studies Department is growing and changing as the student body becomes larger. The department has expanded to include eleven teachers and one intern. Besides an increase in number there has been an increase in dimension to add new sources, such as a Sophomore course designed to make social studies a more interesting and relevant subject.

English Department

Midpark's English Department has grown so much larger to cope with the demands of increasing number of students, that it has moved from a small office to a bigger one. There are seventeen English teachers who teach a wide range of courses from Speech and Debate to literature and composition. The English Department offers Midpark students a well-rounded experience in this essential subject.

Martha Plagman and Mr. Jim Pae present a play for the Junior English Class, (Photo A). Taking time out from his teaching duties (B) is Mr. Jerry Sheets. Miss Judy Sorenson, speech therapist, (C) works with one of the students, helping with a speech difficulty. The history of the theater is explained to her class by Mrs. Kathy Beam (D).

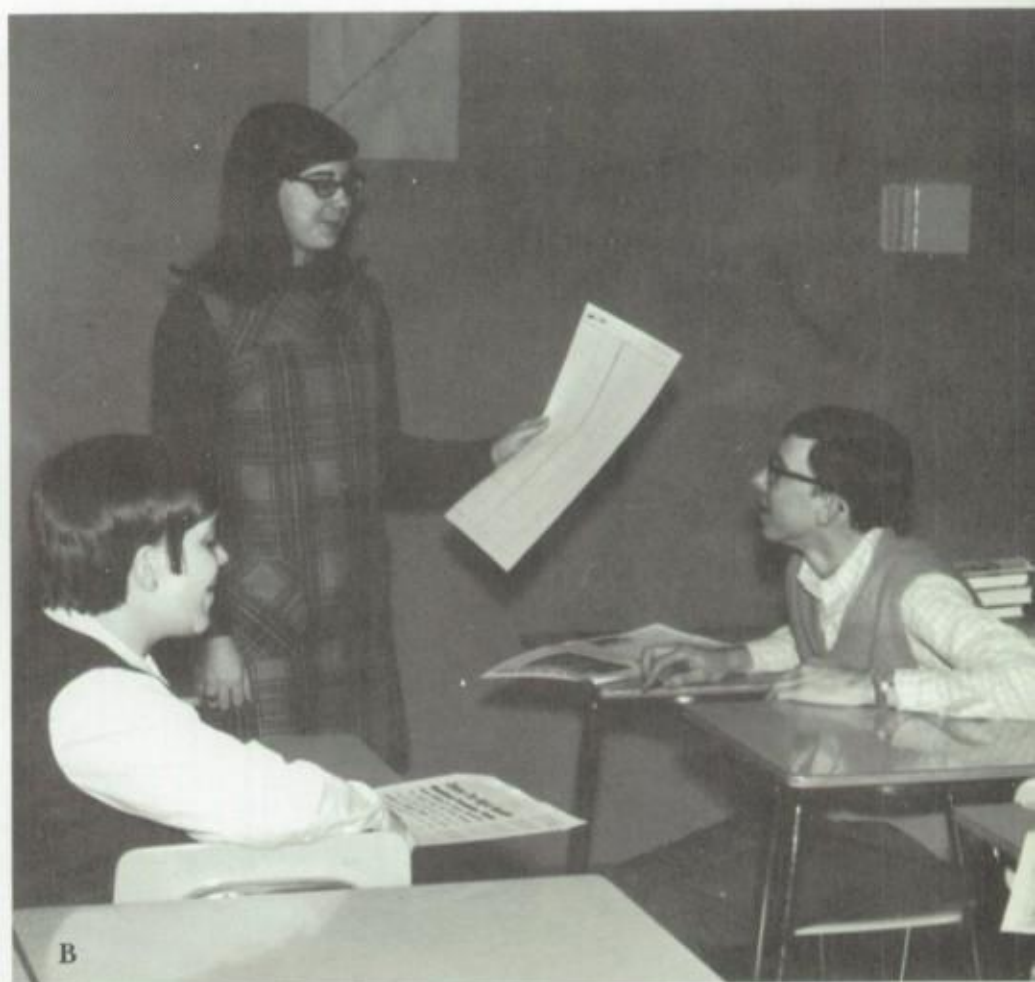

In Row One are Miss Jan Baratta, Mrs. Kathy Beam, Mrs. Jane Becker, Mrs. Jean Brennison, and Mrs. Helen Brown. Mr. John Haight, Mr. Stephen Hawk, Mrs. Marilyn Jefferies, Mr. William McCleery, Department Chairman, and Mr. Bud Myers, are in Row Two. In the Bottom Row are Mr. Lloyd Parsons, Mr. Tom Peters, Mr. Ray Ross, Miss Barbara Van Orsdall, and Mr. Paul Winkel.

Playing chess at one of their regular meetings are club members Marcie Kneisley, Jack Calderon, David Vukoic, Joe Laszlo, and Larry Bridgham. (B) Checking over copy with Mr. Parsons and Mr. Peters are staff members Dennette Galdun, Barb Gregory and Bev Coburn. (C & D)

Chess Club Monitor Staff

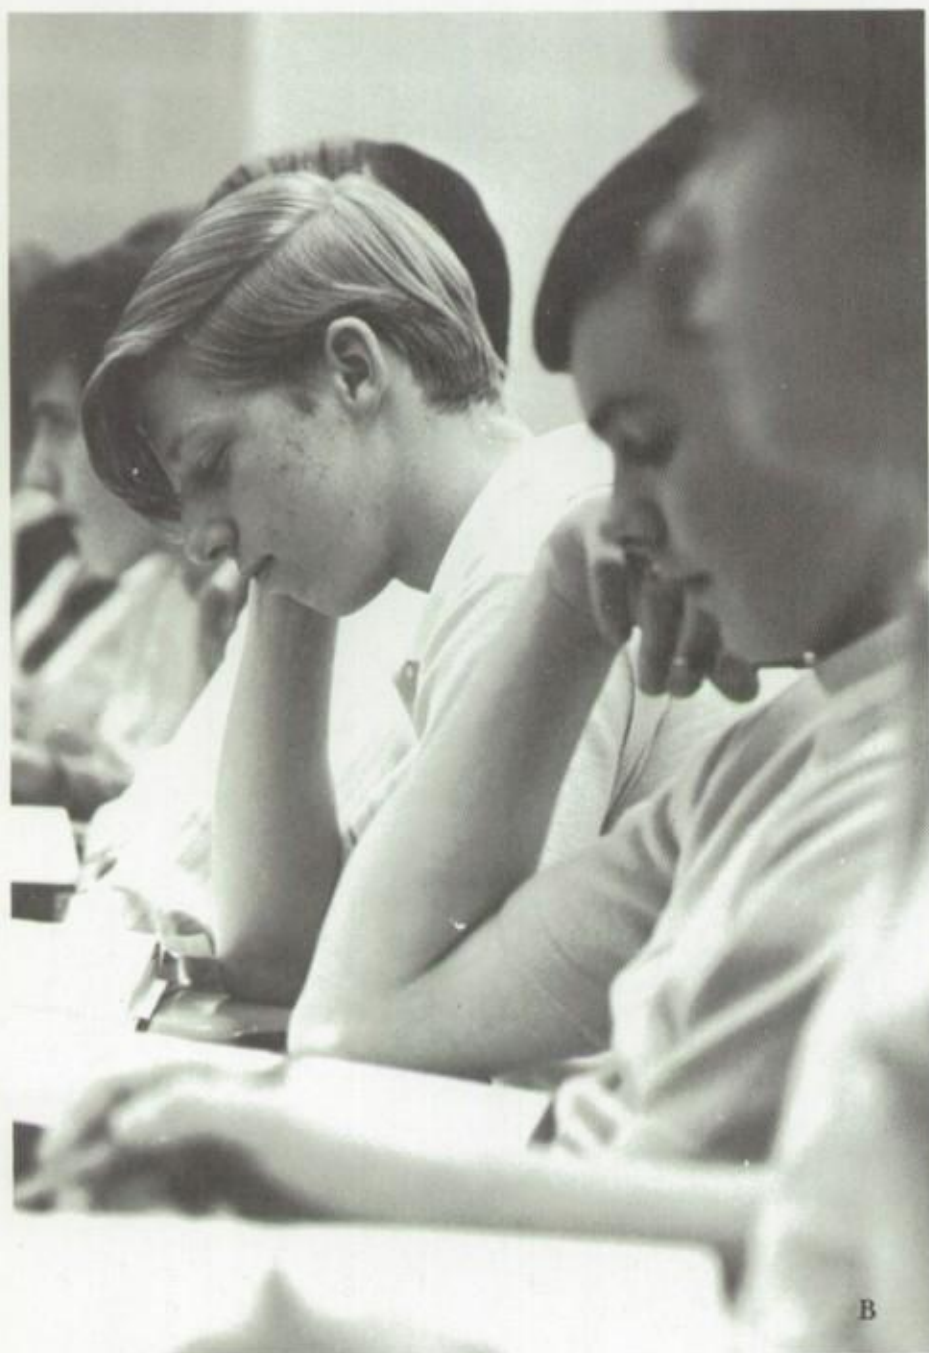

There are many organizations at Midpark that allow students to use their intelligence and talents. Chess Club offers the opportunity to play against others who are seriously interested in what they are doing.

Monitor is Midpark's school newspaper and tells about what has, is, or will happen at Midpark.

Language Department

In our complex world, it is not enough to know only about our country; it is necessary to understand the language and customs and cultures of other nations. Midpark's Language Department offers this understanding to its students with courses in French, Spanish, German, and Latin. Students can learn to speak and write another language and study about the cultures that have shaped the language.

Mr. Thomas Becka's class not only learns to speak German, they also learn about the culture. (Photo A) Bud Eastridge and Tom Schneider (B) study diligently before a test. In the language lab (C) Steve Bobulsky, Janis Henry learn the correct pronunciation of French words.

Michele Gulan (Vice Pres.), Wendy Aumiller (Sgt. of Arms), John Palkovic (Pres.), Nancy Spaan (Treas.), and Peg Nosek (Sec.) are French Club officers (C). AFS members (D) hold a dance after their International Banquet. An AFS student at Baldwin Wallace from Sierra Leone, Africa, gave an interesting talk at the AFS banquet (E). AFS officers are (F) Blaine Mayer (Pres.), and Peg Nosek (Sec.).

French, Spanish, and American Field Service

In a world that is so hard to understand
Midpark is only a very small part.
But some of the world
Can be in Midpark
When the students try to reach
For what is beyond their school.
When a club is formed to transcend
the walls of Midpark
That studies what life is like
Somewhere else
The students are taking a step closer
To being part of a bigger world.
With French Club, German Club, Spanish
Club and AFS
The students of Midpark
Are opening the doors
And seeking a part of the life
That is beyond their school
And maybe the world won't be so hard
To understand.

Art Department

Midpark's Art Department gives Midpark students the atmosphere in which to be creative. They can use their talents and ideas on projects that they want to create with the supervision and help of their teachers. The Art department annually participates in a spring art show that displays the talents of Midpark's students.

(Photo A) Carl King and (B) Dave McFarland work with perfection in mind, on their art projects.

Mr. Charles Bontempo
Miss Marjorie Kennedy
Mr. Dean Klotz

Bristles Club

The organizations at Midpark cover a wide range of interests. For those interested in art, there is the Bristles Club. Each year Bristles paints cars for the caravan to the Berea game. They also sponsor an art show and invite other schools to participate. Bristles offers the students an opportunity to use their art knowledge, and enjoy it.

Contributing their artistic talents (Photo A) in the car painting are the Bristles Club officers, President Richlyn Smith, Vice-president Sue Todys, Secretary Pam Kalcik, and Jim Higginbotham. Missing is Treasurer Sally Fergusson. Helping Pam paint another car (B) is Joanne Setonni. Other Bristles members are Greg Hanselman, Al Lungo, Jane Cowan, Mira Mergler, Bob Janca, Dave Donahoe, Jean Stone, Linda Fowler, Judy Jakupcik, Nick Fedak, Diane Gauchat, Patty Paolucci, Cindy Gergel, Jo Settoni, Tom Swift, Debbie Paolucci, Sandy Gergel, Pat Menini, Marge Wherley, Kathy Ray, Paula Merkle, Jan Berlin, Chris McCafferty and Marv Cayet.

Marching Band

Midpark is many things besides a school, and the band is one of the best examples of what it can be. The talents of 112 students are blended into a band that all of Midpark has reason to be proud of. At half time during the football season a drum major, eight majorettes, eight flag carriers, and eighty-five marchers take the field. Concerts by the symphonic band and competing in a state contest present the best of Midpark's band throughout the year.

Invited to play at halftime for the Cleveland Brown's football team, the band puts in hours of practice (A) before the stadium stands which are empty. Later, to more than 84,000 fans and over one million television fans, (B) the majorettes and flag bearers march up and down the field. Mike Maraschky (C) head drum major, brings the band down the field. Mr. James Fudale (D) and Mr. John Simic put in many hours of hard work with the band. At the Eastlake North game (F) the band sponsored a parent's night.

Orchestra and Dance Band

Midpark's Orchestra is made up of band members chosen because of their ability and talent. Mr. Ludwig directs the Orchestra which has about twenty-five members. The students practice together on Tuesday nights and Thursday during school. They play in the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert.

Midpark's Dance Band, which plays at the Pop Concert is made up of parts of the concert band. It includes the Brass and Reed sections and the Drums.

Symphonic Band and Concert Band

Midpark's band is recognized as one of the best in the state and band members work hard to maintain their reputation. The Symphonic Band, made up of the best players, numbers more than sixty students who work in school and at extra practice sessions to keep improving. The concert band works every day to help Midpark's band stay on top.

Concert Choir

Midpark's Concert Choir is made up of students whose hard work and talent are combined to reflect their spirit and pride in Midpark. Their performances show what Midpark can be and their standards are part of the standards that Midpark is judged by.

Midpark's Choral Club is made up of a large group of girls who have an interest in music and a talent for singing. They work hard to learn and improve and to prepare for try-outs for the Concert Choir.

Business Department and C.O.E.

Many Midpark students will find jobs in the business world and the business department offers them valuable preparation for the future. They are taught many office skills and given experience in dealing with actual situations that they will someday be concerned with. COE, Cooperative Office Education, is a senior program that allows for classroom instruction and on-the-job training as part of Midpark's Business Education.

DECA; DCT; OWE; BOE

Vocational education is a very important part of Midpark. Students are given a chance to learn and work at the same time to help them prepare for future careers. Distributive Education involves working in the marketing field and is held at Berea High. DCT or Diversified Cooperative Training allows students to study in school what they will do at their jobs. Occupational Work Experience is a two year program that offers classes and on the job training. Business Office Education Clerical and Steno teaches intensive training for office work.

Sally Olsafsky, Anita Grube, and Mrs. Churchill enjoy the BOE Banquet (Photo A). Senior BOE Clerical Officers (B) are Debbie Adam, vice-president, Gloria Fredericy, secretary, and Diane Haley, president. Missing is Anita Grube, treasurer. Senior BOE Steno Officers are Mary Foley, secretary, Linda Szabo, treasurer, Diane Karpac, president, and Sally Olsafsky, vice-president. BOE steno classes simulate actual office settings (C). Junior Steno BOE officers (D) are Char Stepp, treasurer, Toni Bruno, vice-president, Denise Zgodzinski, president, Jan Lowe, recording secretary, and Denise Fredmonsky, corresponding secretary. Senior OWE members (E) include Richard Herrman, John Holtz, Carol Howell, Joe Pentolino, Linda Piasecki, Randy Ruch, Richard Saponari, treasurer, Jan Stumpf, Debbie Tenaglia, Jim Vourliotis, and Shirley Valiante. Junior members include Bill Attina, vice-president, Mike Ogden, treasurer, and Steve Causey, Sergeant-at-arms. Pat Reel (G) works in the Midpark office as part of the DECA program.

Home Economics And Future Homemakers of America

Mrs. Vi McMonigle
Mrs. Carol Templeman

There are many ways to get an education besides reading text books. Home Economics and Future Homemakers of America provide one of the most effective and enjoyable ways of learning. In the home economics classes and the F.H.A. meetings the girls learn by doing. They teach themselves how to become skillful and responsible homemakers. Students not only learn how to sew and cook, but they also study nutrition, child development, interior decorating, clothing and textiles, and home management.

Sheila Subin (Photo A) cuts out a pattern for a spring coat in sewing class. One of the many boys in Foods Management, Frank Meier (B) prepares some brownies.

Industrial Arts

Midpark's Industrial Arts Department offers a wide variety of courses in many fields such as electricity, printing, wood-working, drafting, photography, auto mechanics, plastics, and power mechanics. In this department the students learn to operate machinery which they very well could use the rest of their lives. The students learn by experience.

Driver's Education

Midpark's Driver's Education course is designed to teach students to be careful and knowledgeable drivers. For one semester, students have three days of classroom instruction and two days of driving experience. There are also classes held on Saturday. At the end of a semester, students should be prepared to take their formal driver's tests.

Auto Mechanics is a two year course for students with a mechanical interest and background. They are given actual experience working on jobs that they will have to cope with when they finish school.

Physical Education

Midpark's Physical Education Department is growing and changing to keep up with the student body. This year there are eight new teachers. There were also new courses offered, like fencing for the girls. The physical education department helps make Midpark students develop well-rounded interests by offering a variety of activities.

Mr. Tom Duer and Mrs. Kathy Christ (Photo A) discuss the idea of safety to their gymnastics classes at Midpark. Showing her girl's leaders the proper stance for "en garde" (B) is Mrs. Rene Kranstuber. Over in the pool area, Mrs. Sue Jacobs calls out instructions to the girls in the swimming pool.

Gymnastic members (Photo A) learn to adjust to many types of equipment. In their morning classes (B) the leaders practice fencing. The officers of the leaders (C) are Jo Anne Dregalla, Val Zingalis, and Mary Sebestyen. Other members of leaders are K. Barrett, D. Brauer, M. Braun, C. David, J. Donofrio, M. Granger, M. Hendricks, J. Miller, C. Minich, S. Oravec, S. Parker, D. Scaggs, G. Starn, C. Stepp, S. Subin, L. Ulman, J. Walker, M. Wolfram, M. Yunis, and D. Zaucha.

Leaders & Gymnastics

Gymnastics and Girl's Leaders provide an opportunity for Midpark students to participate in athletics. Gymnastics allows its members to become skillful and careful in performing in athletics. Girl's leaders are given the responsibility of assisting in the physical education program. They also enjoy themselves while they work.

We've got Spirit . . .

Pep Club has helped to build the increased spirit of Midpark students. The Pom-pom girls wearing orange and brown, are the new way to heighten participation by the student body. By showing the teams that they care such as sponsoring the football team feed, the girls reflect the desire of all the students for making a better Midpark.

Girls' Athletic Association

Girls' Athletic Association is an organization that gives the girls at Midpark an opportunity to participate in athletics, to develop skill and sportsmanship, and show their school spirit. G.A.A. sponsors the Mid-Mets game and intramural competition in sports. G.A.A. members also engage in outside of school activities such as skiing and horseback riding.

The G.A.A. officers are (Photo A) Sue Oravac, recorder, Margaret Wolfram, president, Judi Koran, publicity, Mary Jo Granger, intramurals, Debbie Fredmonsky, secretary, and Mary Hendrickson, treasurer. National Honor Society

Fall Induction

Induction into National Honor Society is an honor that is attained through achievements in scholarship, leadership, and service. In December seniors are chosen for induction into N.H.S., and in April seniors and juniors are chosen. This year N.H.S. began a tutoring program with students from Middlebrook Elementary School.

Future Teachers of America

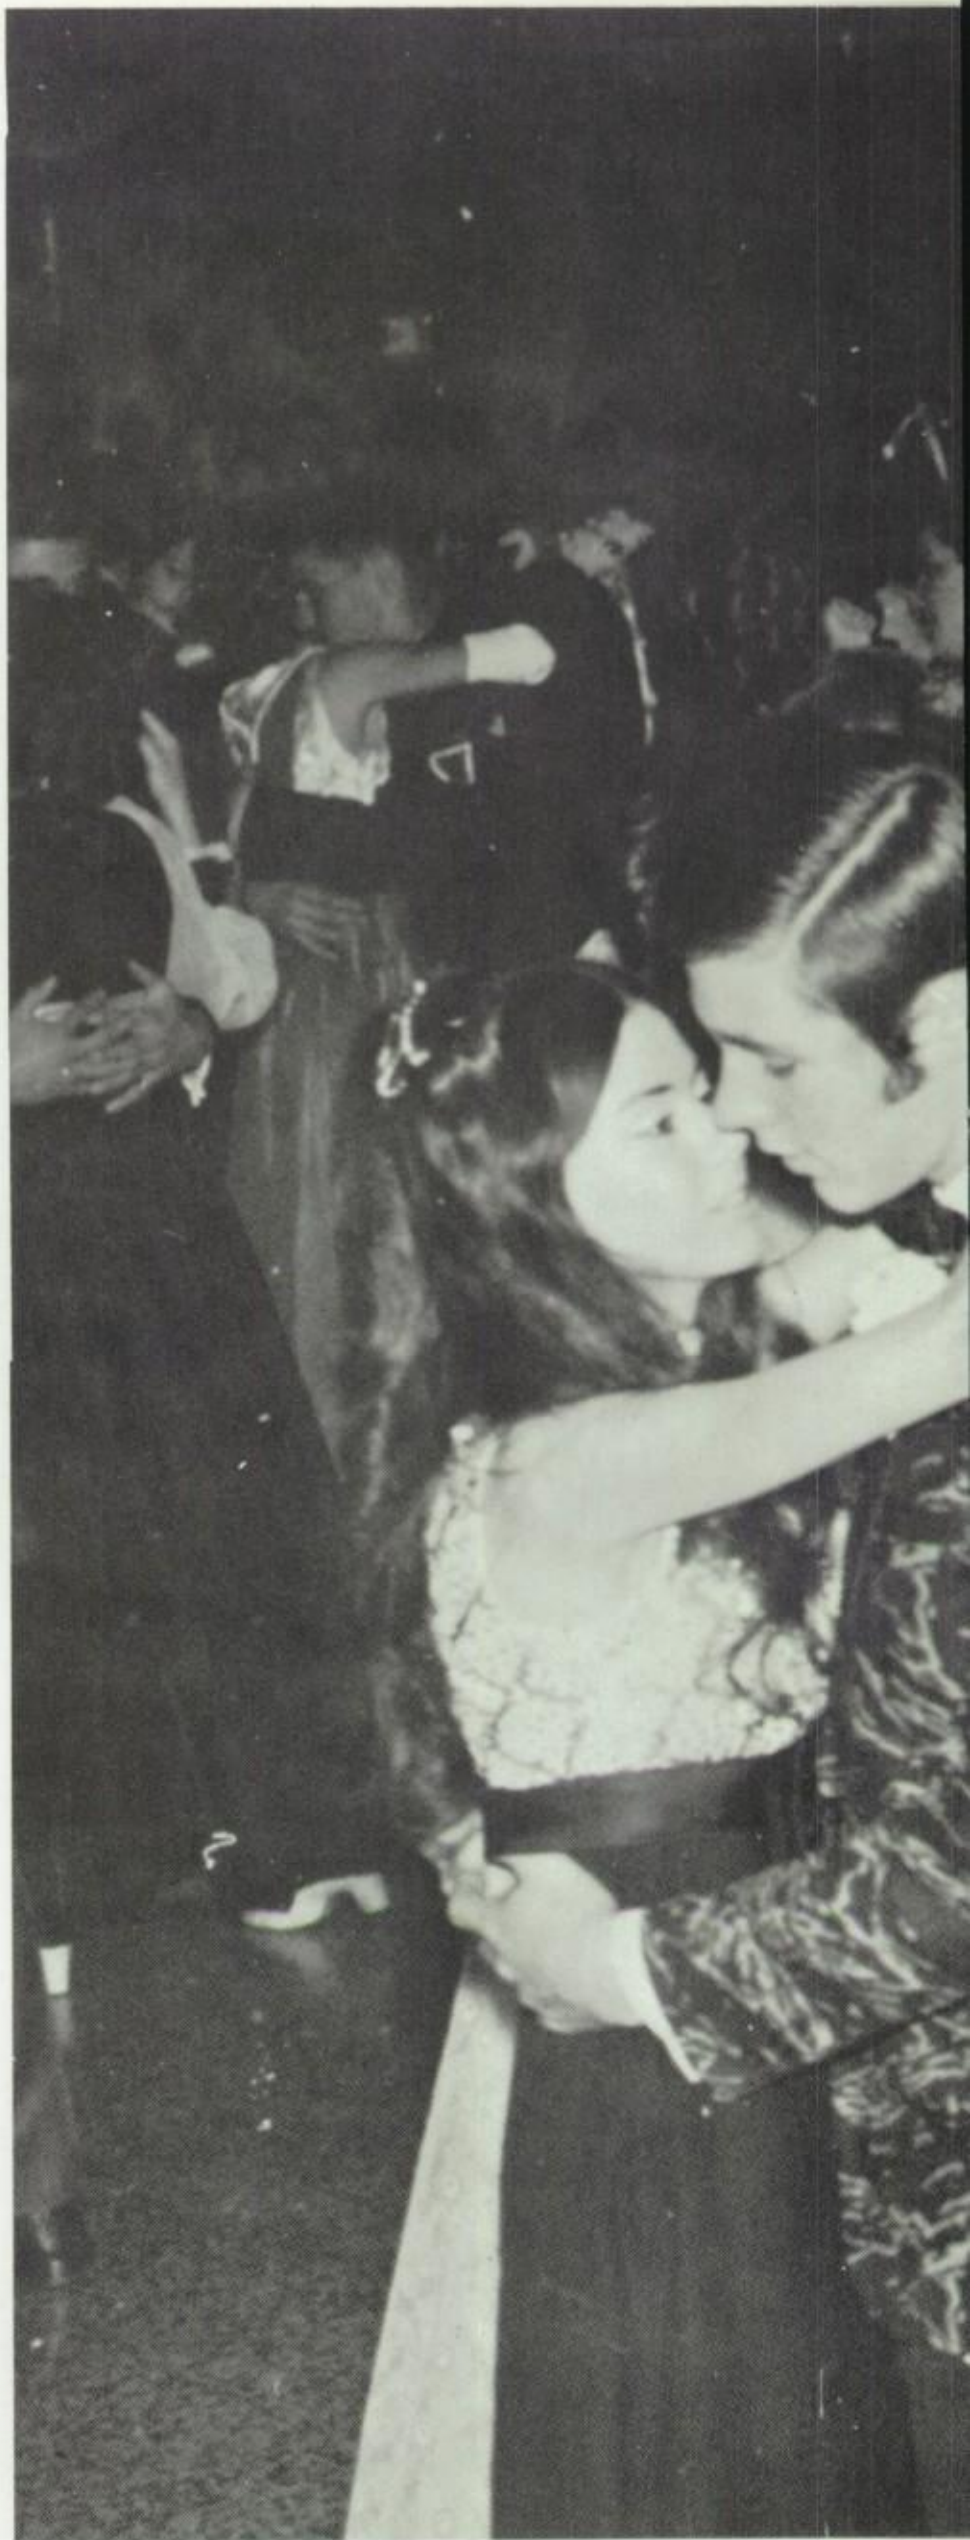

Education is preparing for the future, and along with this must come preparation for a career. Future Teachers of America at Midpark is an organization that explores the careers of teaching and offers its members a chance to understand and participate in the teaching career. By learning about the steps to enter the teaching profession, and finding out what the job involves, Midpark students can more effectively prepare for the future.

MIDPARK Finishes First

In Greater Cleveland Conference

Coach Dick Lowry explains to Tom Erhard (Photo A) how he wants the defensive set up. Bob Chirdon (14) lets go of a pass (b) just before being hit from the side. Junior Jack Koran picks his way through the Willoughby line (C) while his brother Bob bulls over through the Rocky River line for a tally. (D) Senior Blair Conway (E) bides his time until a place kicker is needed.

CHAMPS!

"The boys made up their mind on Monday that they weren't going to share the G.C.C. title with anyone," our coach of the year said. And Coach Lowry was right. His team won their game that Friday night 35-0 over Mayfield and clinched the G.C.C. Trophy.

Midpark's offensive unit was headed by Bob Koran and his brother Jack. Both boys broke records and helped Midpark's offensive unit to run all over the opposite teams' defense.

Heading the defense was Ralph Haditsch and Bob Holian. Along with them was a team defense that yielded an average of 6.1 points a game.

This team couldn't lose. It won the Junior Varsity G.C.C. title in 1967, and won Varsity in 1969. This was the fighting attitude which made up the No. 1 Team.

JV Football

"This JV team, should bring Midpark the GCC Varsity Conference title in 1971. This team worked hard and they deserved everything they received." Head JV Coach, David Dye was very optimistic that this team will go far. This team record was 5-4-1, which didn't show the rare quality it had. But, his team was a fighting team to the bitter end. This team ran a lot as you can see on these two pages. Their quarterback, Jim Guylus, also ran the ball for long yardage. We look for the members of this JV team, to help Varsity bring another trophy to Midpark Next Year.

Midi—Gras

A Tradition at Midpark

Where every organization can participate
In making the cafeteria a carnival
And making the dance a success.

This year Midi-Gras has become bigger and more original than ever before. There were more than twenty booths, all completely different, all reflecting the ingenuity and ideas of Midpark students.

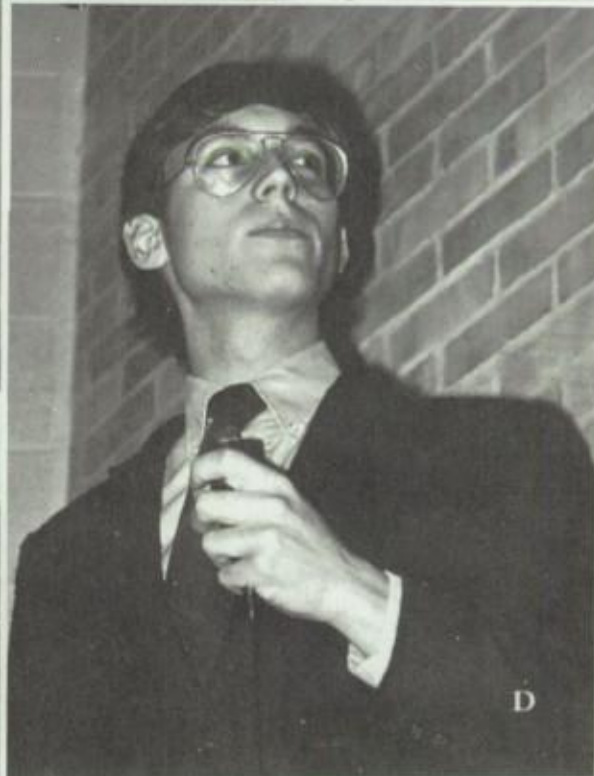

There were no limits on ideas
No restrictions on originality
Throwing pies and sponges
Dropping eggs and reading palms
A kissing booth and a jail
Squirting teachers and selling food
And many more — booths and games.
Then, a tug-of-war and a dance.

The tug-of-war in the gym began at 9:00
And then there was a dance
With the Soul Purpose.

A tradition that grows and changes.

This year's Midi-Gras was an attraction for everyone (Photo A). You could give your friends a hot seat (B) as Tim Root assists Ron Rybak. Or you could do as Sandy Gergel, (C) and give your friends some pie. Perhaps a bath (D) as Kim Short or Steve Williams take. Gayle Griffin, Debbie Golden, and Donna Lewis (E) were available for body painting. Or, perhaps, you just wanted to cycle around (F) the event as did Dorothy Stadtler.

Talent is a quality that is better when it is shared
 Using one's abilities . . . and ideas
 Making a special effort . . . to excell
 Because then others can experience the success:
 Being rewarded by applause . . . and enjoyment
 Having fun by participating . . . and by watching
 MID-IDIOM is this talent and success:
 "To be young" . . . at Midpark
 Having the spirit for caring . . . and trying
 Because MID-IDIOM is a reflection of Midpark
 Seeing the talent and the work . . . and the desire
 Knowing that the students care . . . what Midpark is
 This is the spirit "To be Young" . . . and the spirit of Midpark.

Varsity Basketball

There is no doubt that a 2-16 record for a varsity team represents a very disappointing season. It's disappointing for the team, the coach, the school — for all concerned. Everyone wants to know what happened or what went wrong. Perhaps it can be explained.

Our team came together in November as a very inexperienced group, only two returning lettermen, Paul Senyak and Bob Moore. There was no one capable to be a very good playmaker, the quarterback of basketball. Then too, the team played in a conference which showed better balance and overall improvement. Not having a fast team, most opponents played a pressing game against us, thus taking advantage of our inexperience.

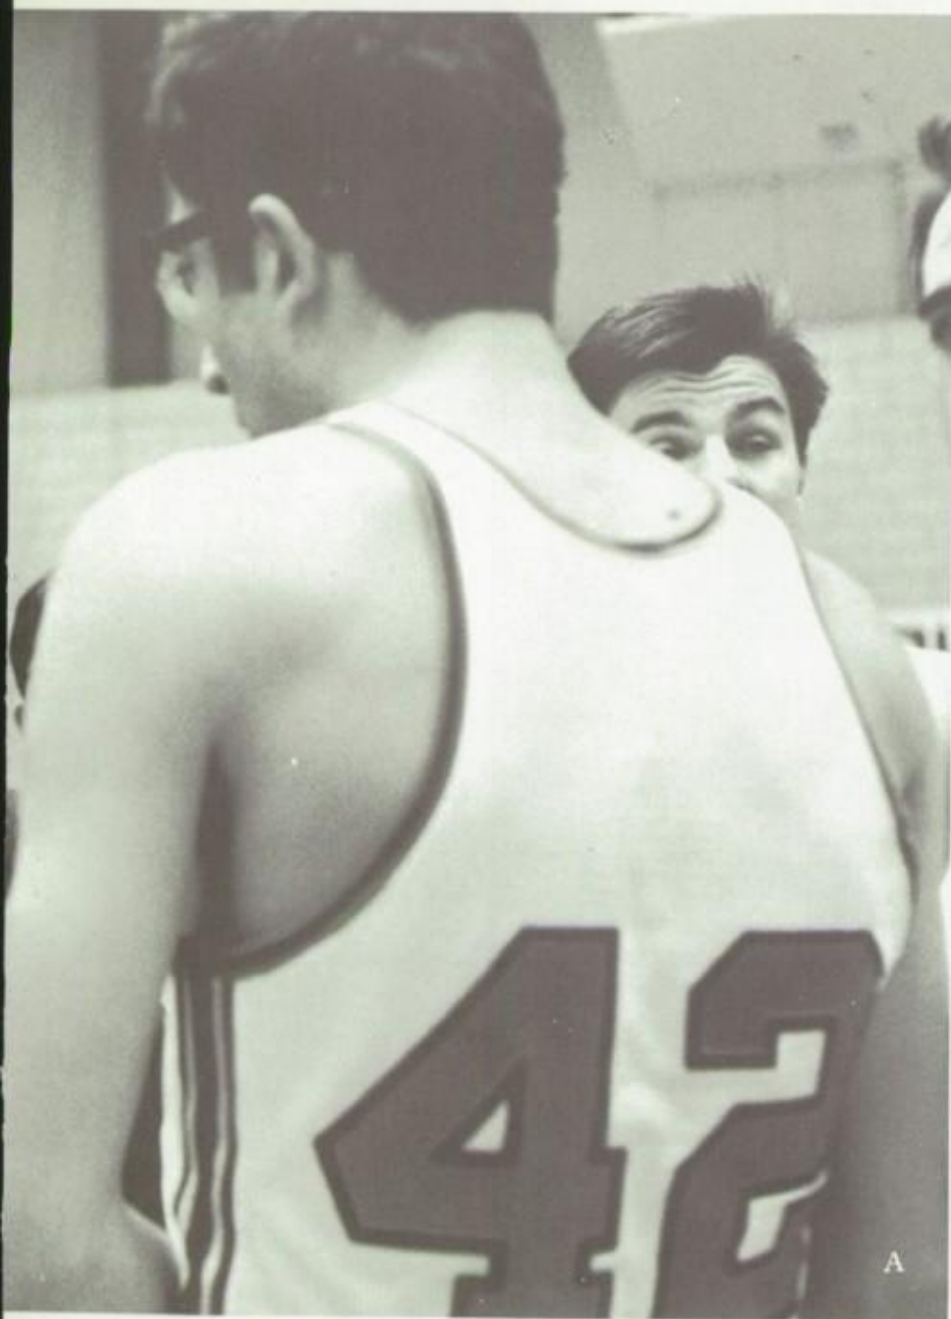

Next year's team will show improvement. The sophomores have speed, and potential. However the prediction is that the meteors are still two years away from a winning team.

Junior Varsity Basketball

More often than not, the success or failure of a team is measured by its won - lost record. On this basis, our Junior Varsity team could be considered a lost cause. Two wins and sixteen losses does not measure up very well. The fallacy of this criticism is that it eliminates from consideration the experience the team has gained. A winning team often goes with its top five players; ours allowed everyone the opportunity to play under actual game conditions. Everyone learned. No one will deny that many mistakes were made; no one can deny that people learn by making mistakes — they learn not to make the same mistake again.

A junior varsity team is a valuable asset to a varsity program whether or not they post a winning season. These are the boys who will play on the varsity next year.

Wrestling

It is a custom in athletics for a team to schedule a breather about half way through the schedule. Games of this sort allow a team to relax a little and get ready for the second half of the season, the final drive. This is true except when the sport is wrestling and the location is Cuyahoga County. There is no room for breathers because breather teams do not exist.

Midpark not only has the dubious distinction of being in Cuyahoga County, they also wrestle in the strongest wrestling league in the state. That's why a 7-5 record is not just good, but borders on being terrific.

Coach Marv Rader and his team must be given a great deal of credit for facing a schedule such as theirs. Knowing that a 7-5 record could be 12-0 in other areas of the state might bother some teams and coaches. They would much rather be a part of the best there is, doing the best they can do, for the best possible record. They're proud, and have a right to be.

Cliff Myles (C) takes his wrestling seriously. Co-captain Rod Cajka turns over his opponent (D). Throwing in his legs (E) to help place his foe is senior Dan Mizenko.

Midpark's Winter Sport's Court takes to the outdoors to get into the winter spirit. Bob Zaucha, Debbie Fredmonsky, Jack Lane, Jody Zelman, George Wagner, Debbie First, Chris Dunkin, Glen Gerhart, Linda Schull, Ken Smith, Gretchen Starn, and Bud Eastridge all seem to find outside a cold place to be. (Photo A) However, there was a retreat to the dance. Linda Keller and Mike O'Neil enjoy a break with Denise Fredmonsky and Bill Helmink (B). There was a warm atmosphere (C), almost as if Midpark had been placed in a dream. The beauty of all this was enhanced by the presence of Queen Chris (D) and her court of Jody, Debbie, Gretchen, and Linda (E).

What A Way To Snow

In the midst of winter when spring is too far away to think of:
 Snow is no longer beautiful
 Cold is no longer bearable
 Then it is time to celebrate:
 To mark the Winter Sports Season
 To choose a queen and have a dance
 So "What a Way to Snow" is created:
 With silver snowflakes on the snack bar
 Large fluffy snowflakes from the ceiling
 A court must be chosen:
 Chris Dunkin, Debbie Fredmonsky, Debbie First,
 Linda Schull, Gretchen Starn, and Jody Zelman
 And after the basketball game a queen must be crowned:
 The student body voted
 Chris Dunkin became the queen
 To reign over winter sports from her throne:
 Amidst clouds of white
 With silver to make winter sparkle again
 A dance held in honor of the queen
 With the Soul Purpose played
 And winter became less desolate
 Midpark's "What a Way to Snow"
 Was better than the snow outside.

Clockwatchers

There exists at Midpark a group of girls who assist the cross country, swimming, and track teams. The main function of these girls is to keep statistics, time races and act as judges at these events. Besides doing all these things, the girls also act as a home cheering section for these time events.

Watching the big sun dial on the Baldwin-Wallace campus are the Clockwatchers officers, (Photo A) Sandy Parker, secretary, president, Sandy Bartholme, and treasurer Jane Cowan. Missing is vice-president Mary Hendricks. Timing the Berea-Midpark meet, (B) are clockwatchers Laura Miller, Joy Johnson, Laura Watkins, Sandy Snelley, Robin Blake, Sue Eck, Patty Paolucci, and Sandy Gergel. Lorelei

Ability and hard work are necessary for participation in Lorelei. To be a member, a girl must excel in swimming and be willing to spend many hours practicing for the annual water show which is performed in the spring. Lorelei is an organization that maintains stands that all of Midpark can be proud of. The annual spring water festival is planned by the entire group with the club president and Mrs. Jacobs working on the routines.

Lorelei club members include Cyndy Abram, Lori Abram, Judy Askew, Kris Barr, Sandy Bartholme, Sandy Beran, Nancy Bowers, Diane Brauer, Renee Brooks, Nancy Cox, Candi David, JoAnne Dregalla, Sue Eck, Chris Franklin, Debbie Gauchat, Debbie Grosshandler, Laurie Hawkins, Linda Helmink, Joy Johnson, Kathy Kasper, Linda Keller, Bobbi Long, Lori Lumb, Nancy Mancini, Marcia Mergler, Corey Minich, Sandy Parker, Debbie Poe, Margie Rosicka, Diane Sidwell, Judy Simkus, Gretchen Starn, Sheila Subin, Milada Surak, Mary Ann Yunis, and Valerie Zingalis.

Cramped toes (B) shown by Val Zingalis to Mary Yunis and Kathy Kasper, are just a few problems the girls have. The club (C) puts in many hours of practice to make the show great.

Varsity Swimmers

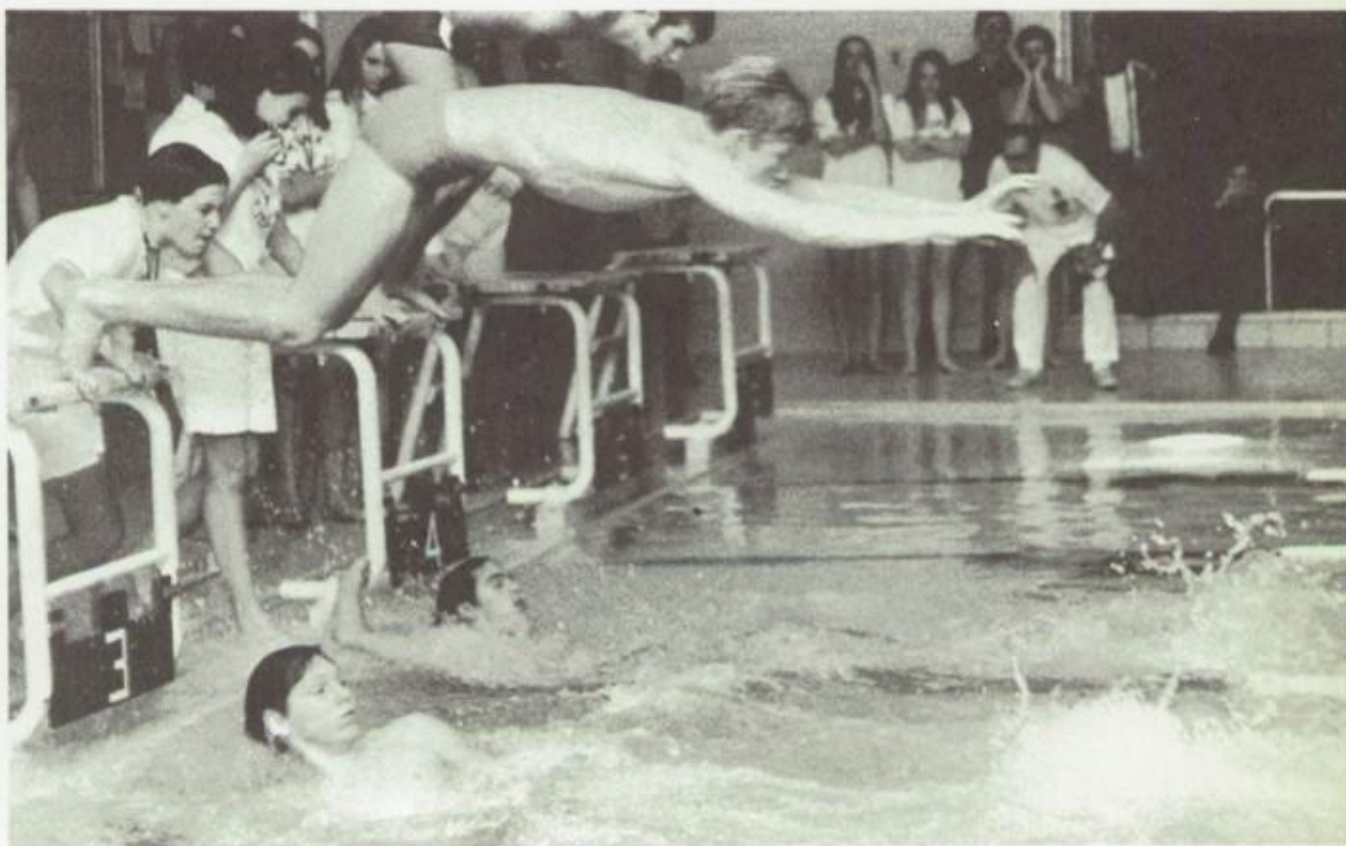

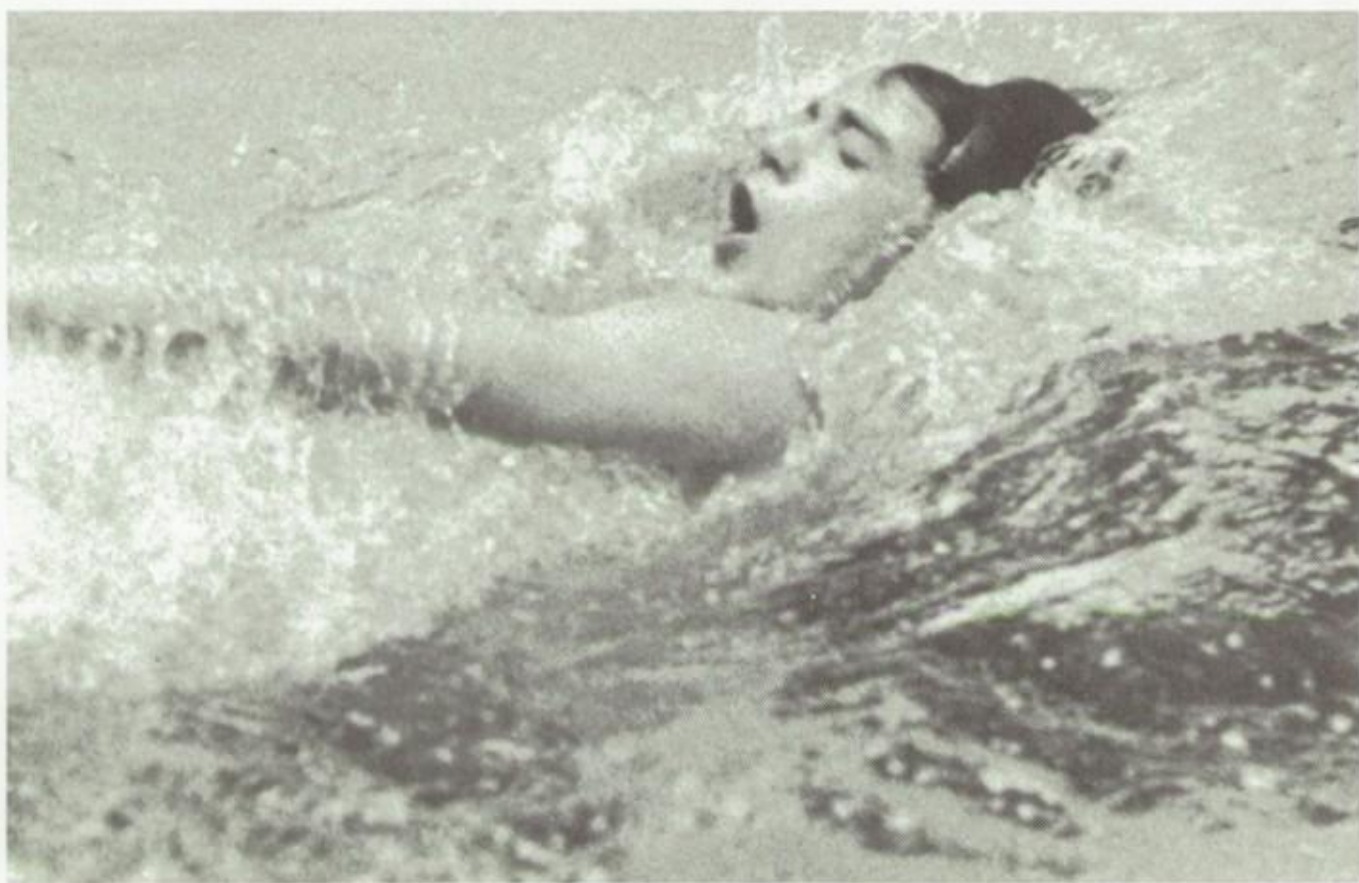

If ever Midpark had an optimistic coach, it would have to be Coach Ed Erdos, coach of Midpark's swimming team.

Midpark's swimmers are currently rated third in the Greater Cleveland area by the local newspapers. Both the Cleveland Press and Coach Erdos feel that the Meteors are among the top ten in the state. Right or wrong, there is justification for this optimism. Joe Klebowski broke one of Midpark's most highly respected records, that of former state champion Jeff Jackman who posted a 22.5 record in the 50 yard free style. Joe's new record is 22.4. It puts him in the top five for that event in the United States, in addition to Ohio's best time. Then too, Coach Erdos has a sophomore, Doug Kranes who broke the 200 yard medley relay with a time of 2:11.6 seconds. If more reason for optimism is needed, the coach can always look back to his record breaking 400 yard backstroke relay which swam a 4:03.2 for the best time in the state.

Key Club

Key Club represents the spirit of participation and service that Midpark wants to obtain. Key Club is sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club as a school service club. It seeks to develop good citizenship, leadership and initiative for Midpark boys who wish to join.

One of the many projects which the Key Club works with is cleaning up the woods around Midpark (Photo A). Presiding at a Club meeting are Mike Obloy, president, Tim Leach, vice-president, and Dave Barta, secretary (B). Missing is treasurer, Ken Evans. The Key Club also held a canned foods drive. Here helping with the cans are Larry Latonich, Dan Finkel, Mr. Vantilburg, and Jeff Luken. Other members include Dennis Barta, Greg Betor, Ferd Boehmer, Kris Eridon, Greg Hanselman, Ken Sirocky, Tom Swift, Bob Tymcio, Gary Brennan, Jeb Brooks, Gary Cox, Mike Ference, Chuck Gaskey, Don Geisler, Fred Hancock, Steve Lombardo, Sam Poulton, Jeff Schultz, Larry Van Neil, Rick Wade, Don Barta, Roger Koptish, Bob Marotta.

Junior Bev Kolbert (C) displays her broken ankle which she won on her trip to Peek-N-Peak.

Midpark's enthusiastic Ski Club eagerly awaits reports of snow, so that every Thursday, its members can brave the cold and head for the ski slopes. Many faculty members join the students each week as they learn to ski or practice the skills they have already acquired.

Supply and Bookstore

Text books are not the only source of information for Midpark students. For a special assignment, or just pleasure reading, the Paperback Book Store provides the extra books, and the extra help for finding the right one.

Nearly every store that sells stationary has a back-to school sale in September, but the Midpark Supply Store operates everyday to provide students with all the things they need to help them study. Its staff makes it a convenient way to buy whatever school supplies one needs.

Mendez Is Back

For the second year in a row, the Midpark band played in concert with world famous trumpeteer, Rafael Mendez. The faculty and student body welcomed him back. The concert was a great success. During the week, Mendez practiced with the band. On Saturday, February 14, he played at Midpark with the Concert and Dance Band.

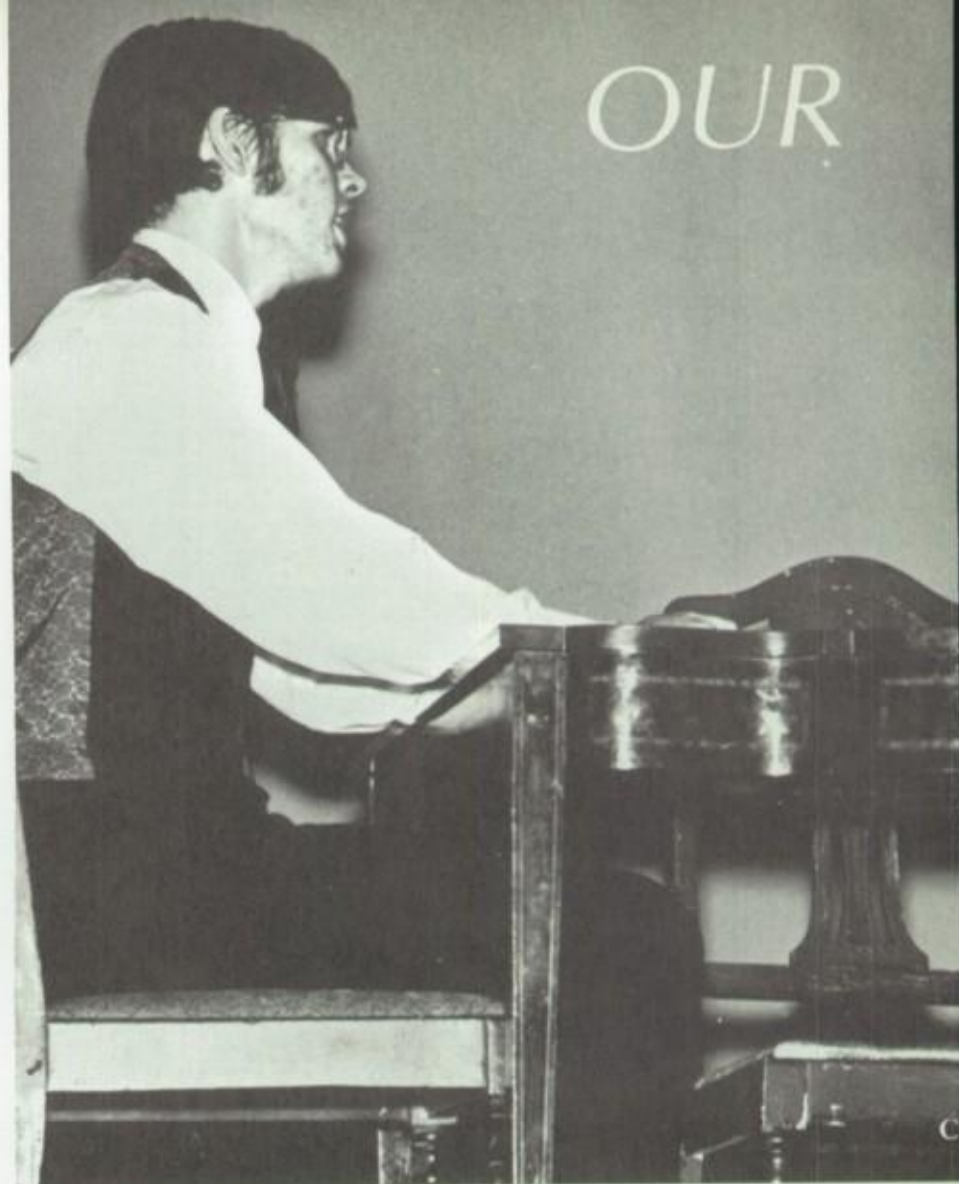

A master both on and off stage, Rafael Mendez practices with the "top-rated" Midpark band (Photo A). In concert with the entire band, Mendez plays his arrangement of "Claveletas". After finishing his arrangement of "Habanera" (C) he asks the band to stand for applause as band director James Fudale also gives a hand of congratulations. Mendez is seen (D) during his rendition of "The Little Russian Donkey".

OUR

TOWN

The subject—a small town, the actors—from a big city suburb, but they made Midpark into Grover's Corners for 2 nights when "Our Town" was presented. The flow of life was easy and slow, with the crisis of the world simplified into love, hate, birth, death, happiness, and tragedy. Midpark students fit well into the lives of the characters they portrayed, and made the atmosphere of Grover's Corners fill the auditorium of a sophisticated modern high school. "Our Town" told of the ordinary and the simple. There were no great heroes and no magnificent deeds. It was a story of life of average people who lived each day as it came. It took talent and imagination to make "Our Town" live and the cast and Mr. Ross showed how well they could bring it alive. Everyone involved worked to make "Our Town" a success and the result was a production that Midpark could be proud of.

Mummers

Midpark's Mummers reflect the interest of the students in dramatics. Combining talent and hard work, the members and Mr. Ross give Midpark an excellent chance to excel in drama. Besides being involved in major play productions, Mummers works on special projects that prove even more its ability and spirit.

Midpark's successful dramatic productions involve many things beyond talented actors and courses like Stagecrafts help to teach students how to prepare for producing a play. It offers experience in working on those behind the scene preparations that are essential for a good production.

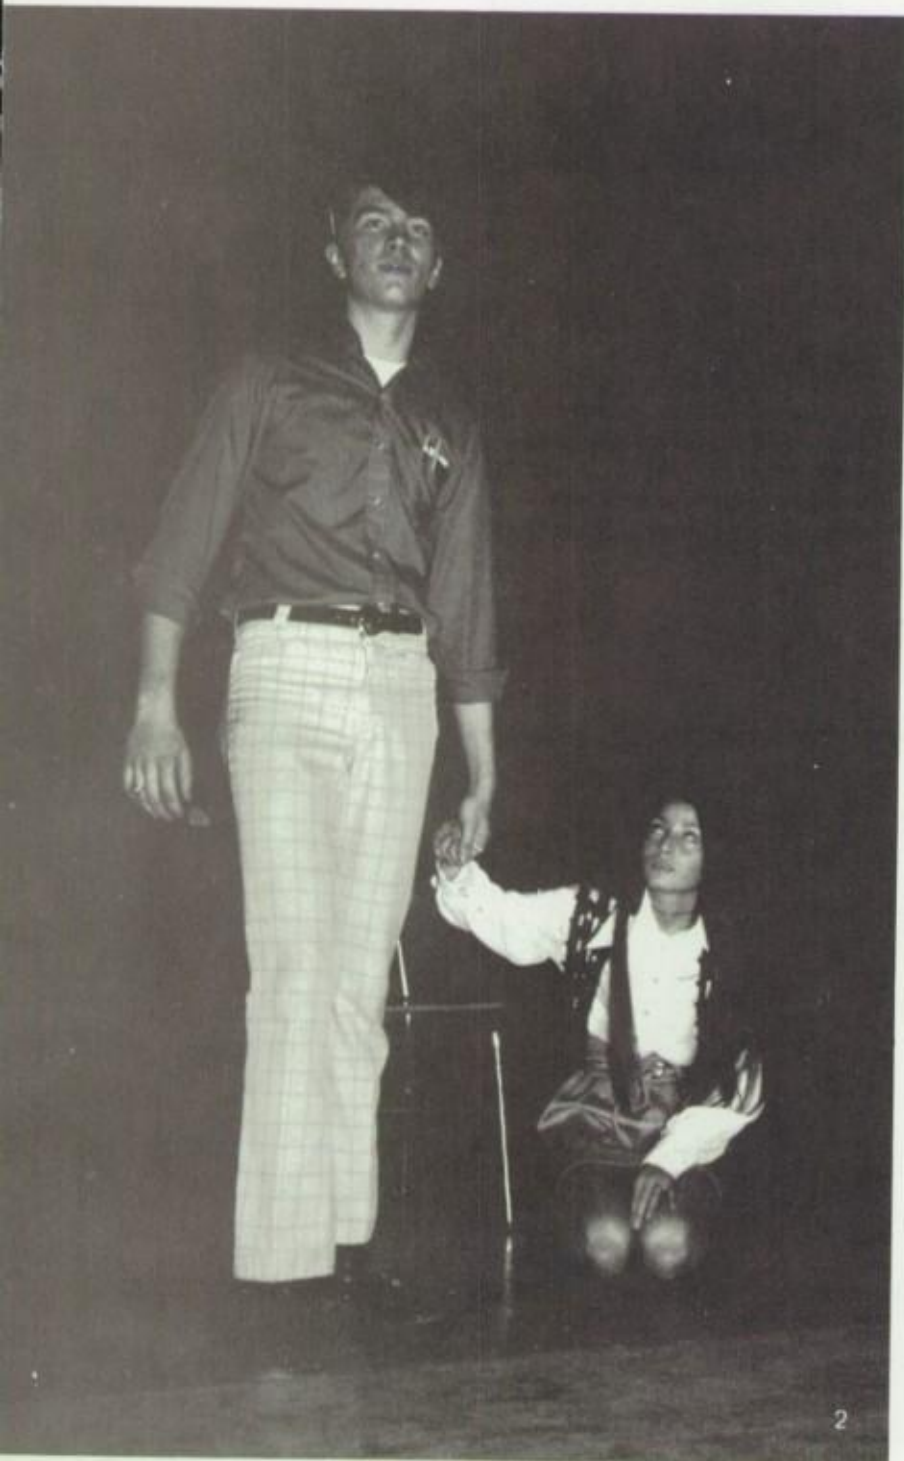

Stagecraft

"David And Lisa"

Midpark's dramatic productions are so successful that Mr. Ross can expand beyond the fall and spring plays to try "Special Theater". With the talent and spirit available at Midpark, there is enough potential to try a complicated and different type of play. This year "David and Lisa" is the Special Theater production. Presented on March 13, it is an attempt to go beyond the average, to combine all the talents and ideas and hard work that students are willing to contribute. It is an experiment and an experience in learning removed from the classroom. It is a chance to test the potential of the student body and another chance to make Midpark the kind of school to be proud of.

MAYAG
MIDPARK HIGH SCHOOL
MIDDLEBURG HILLS, OHIO

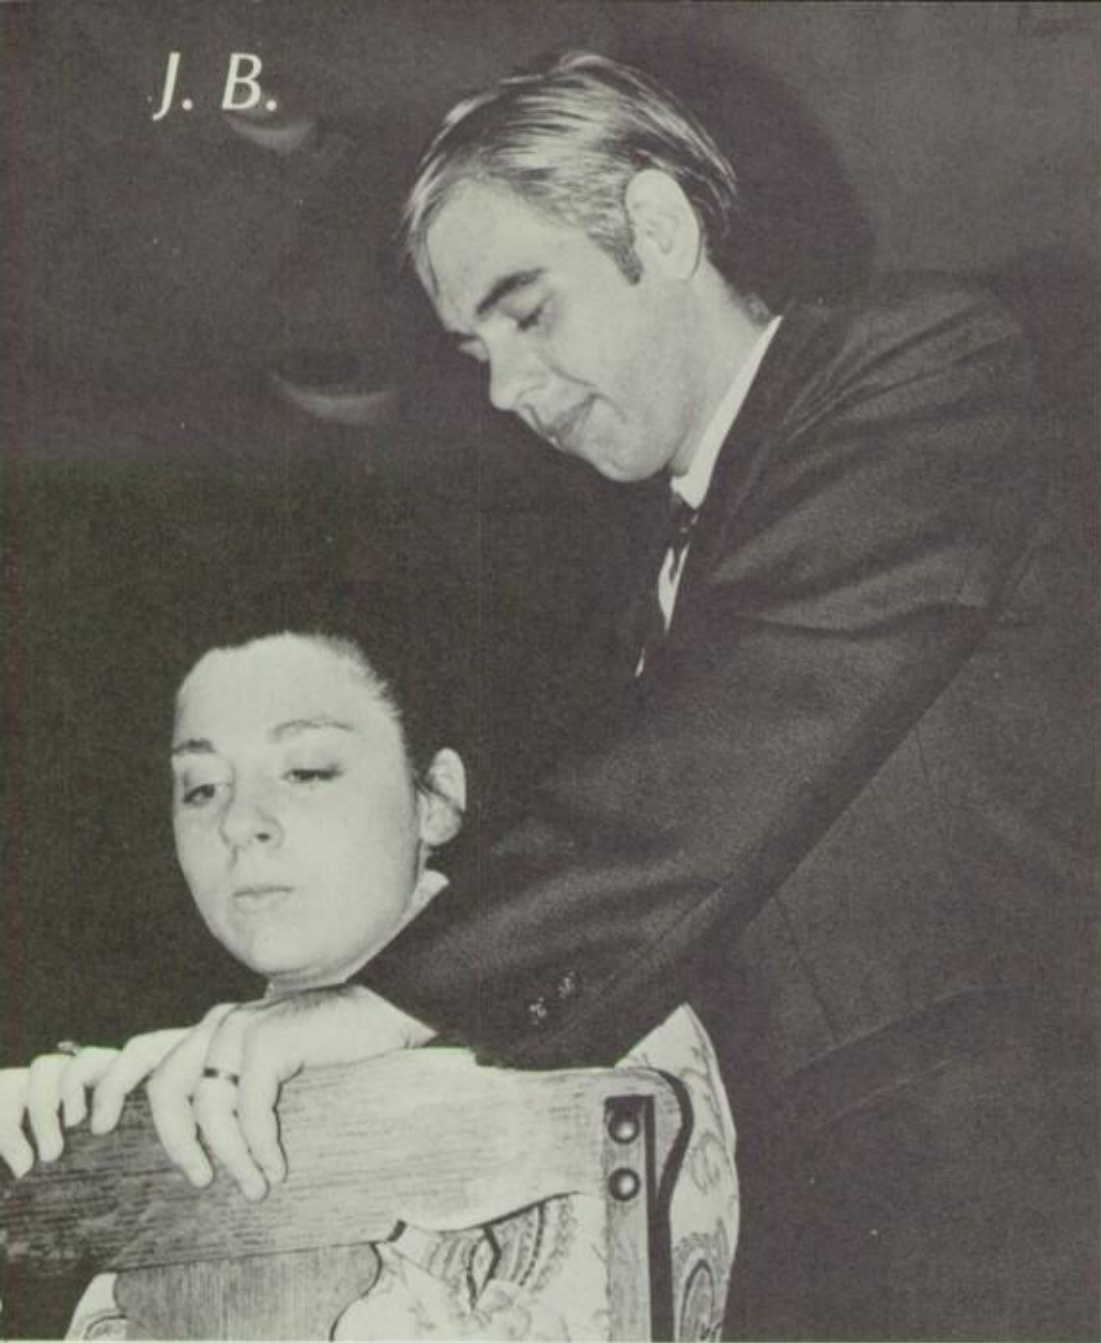

M i d - M e t s

Basketball is not a sport only for boys at Midpark. Each year sophomores, juniors, and senior girls try out to make the girls team — the Mids or the Mets. The teams are captained by senior girls and members must spend much time practicing. The girls play teams from other schools, and then they have an annual game for Midpark's faculty and student body. The Mids play the Mets, with boys acting as cheerleaders, carrying one team on to victory.

J. B.

This year's Spring play "J. B." was another example of the talent of the Midpark dramatic department. This was a difficult play to perform, and also difficult for the audience to understand. Only those who felt they would appreciate its significance were asked to attend, and many came. Mr. Ross and the students of Midpark displayed their ability to meet a new challenge.

Members of the 1970 Tennis Team are: Darrel Buckholzer, Frank Mrak, Randy Miller, Jeff Gaget, Fred Hancock, Mike Schneider, Mr. Wolff Coach, Rodger Hurst, Dave Barta, Jim Faber, Jackie Turk and Margaret Wolfram Statisticians, Tom Root, Larry Bridgham, Ted Nemetz and Tom Schneider. Missing, Jim Elbert.

If improvement is the key to success, the key to the Meteors sports success is the golf team. Each year for the past five years the golfers have improved their record. This year they were 12-6.

Two golfers, Tom Metler and Don Patton, tied a new school record by scoring a season's total of 23 points. Jeff Luken tied a district record with a top game of 84. Jeff will be the only returning golfer for Mr. Robert's team next year.

Golf Team: Row 1, Bland Lanning, Rick Vargo, Bob Howler, Blair Lanning, Row 2, Dan Roberts, Coach, Ken Sirocky, Tom Melter, Jeff Luken, Don Patton.

"UP, UP, and AWAY was the theme of this year's Lorelei show which was again one of the most popular events at Midpark. After months of practice and preparation Lorelei members were ready to present an outstanding water show. The costumes and scenery were beautiful, and this, adding to the skill and talent of the girls, made a wonderful presentation.

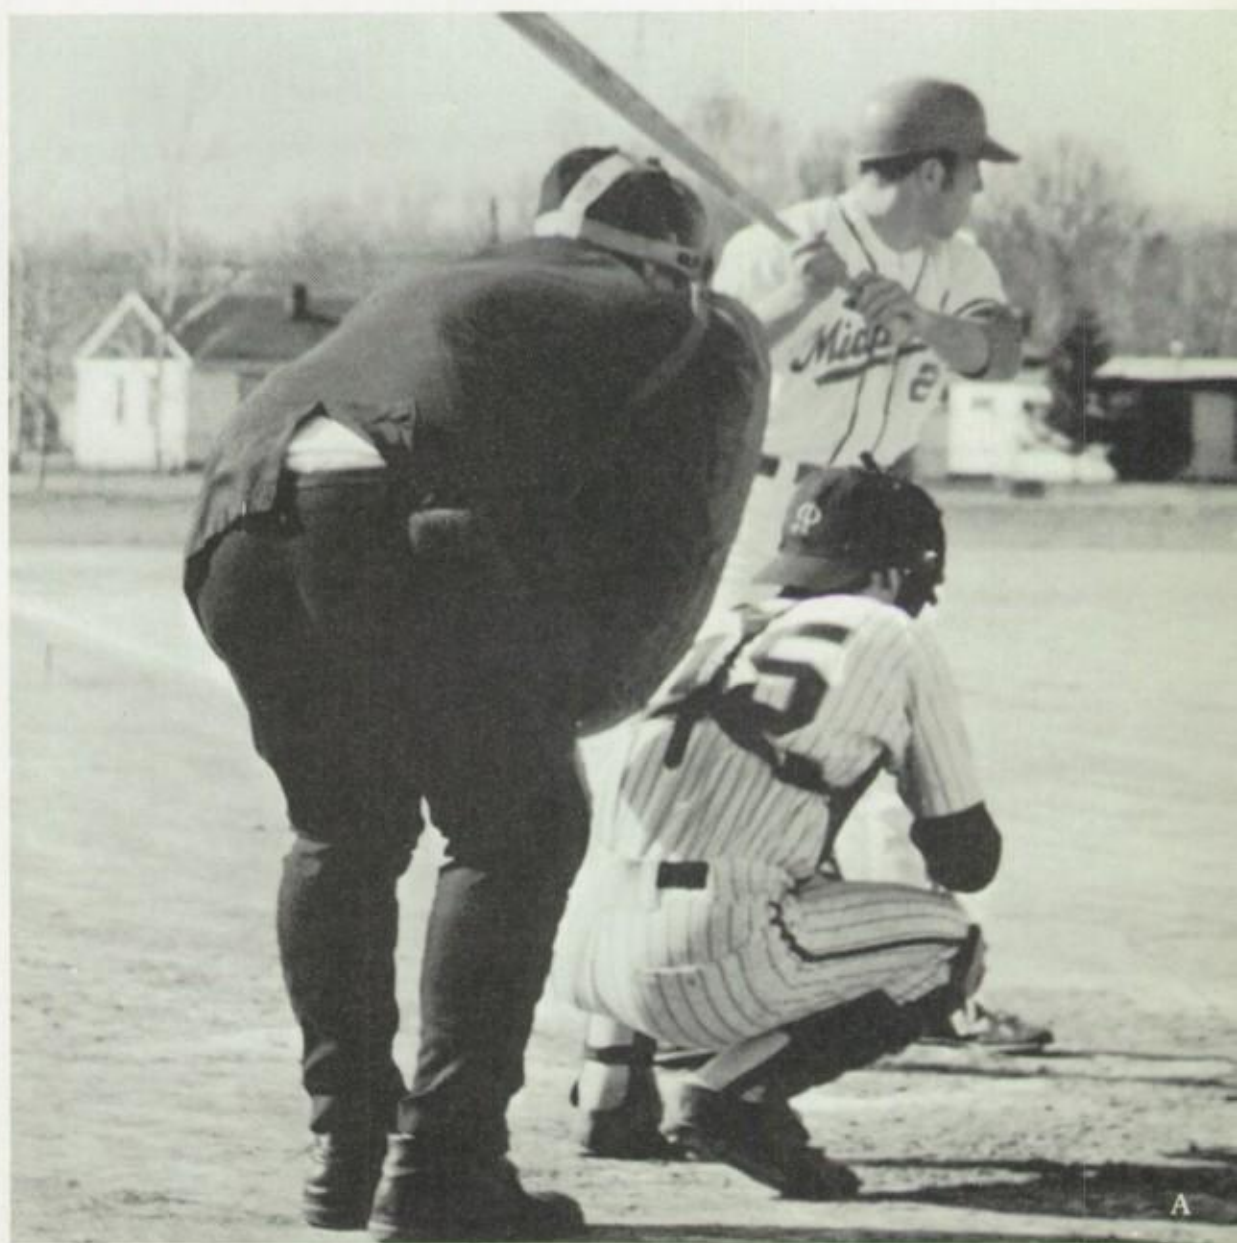

Baseball Team

Meteor Baseball

Dave Baxendale (a) gets in a ready position to hit the ball. Jack Koran (b) is in the position he plays on the baseball team — catcher. John Lemanowitz (c) looks like he's keeping an eye on the pitcher before he steals a base. Terry Mercer (d) shows off the style that made him famous. (e) Big John studies the pitcher before he hits the ball a mile.

A Time for Us . . .

That we created

especially to remember . . .

Stained glass windows

A crystal chandelier

A garden gazebo

A white bridge with flowers

Trellises with roses

A balcony held by columns

A prom that Midpark will remember . . .

A post-prom that carried the night into sunrise . . .

A drive in the darkness to Wagner's Country Inn

A band that played through morning hours

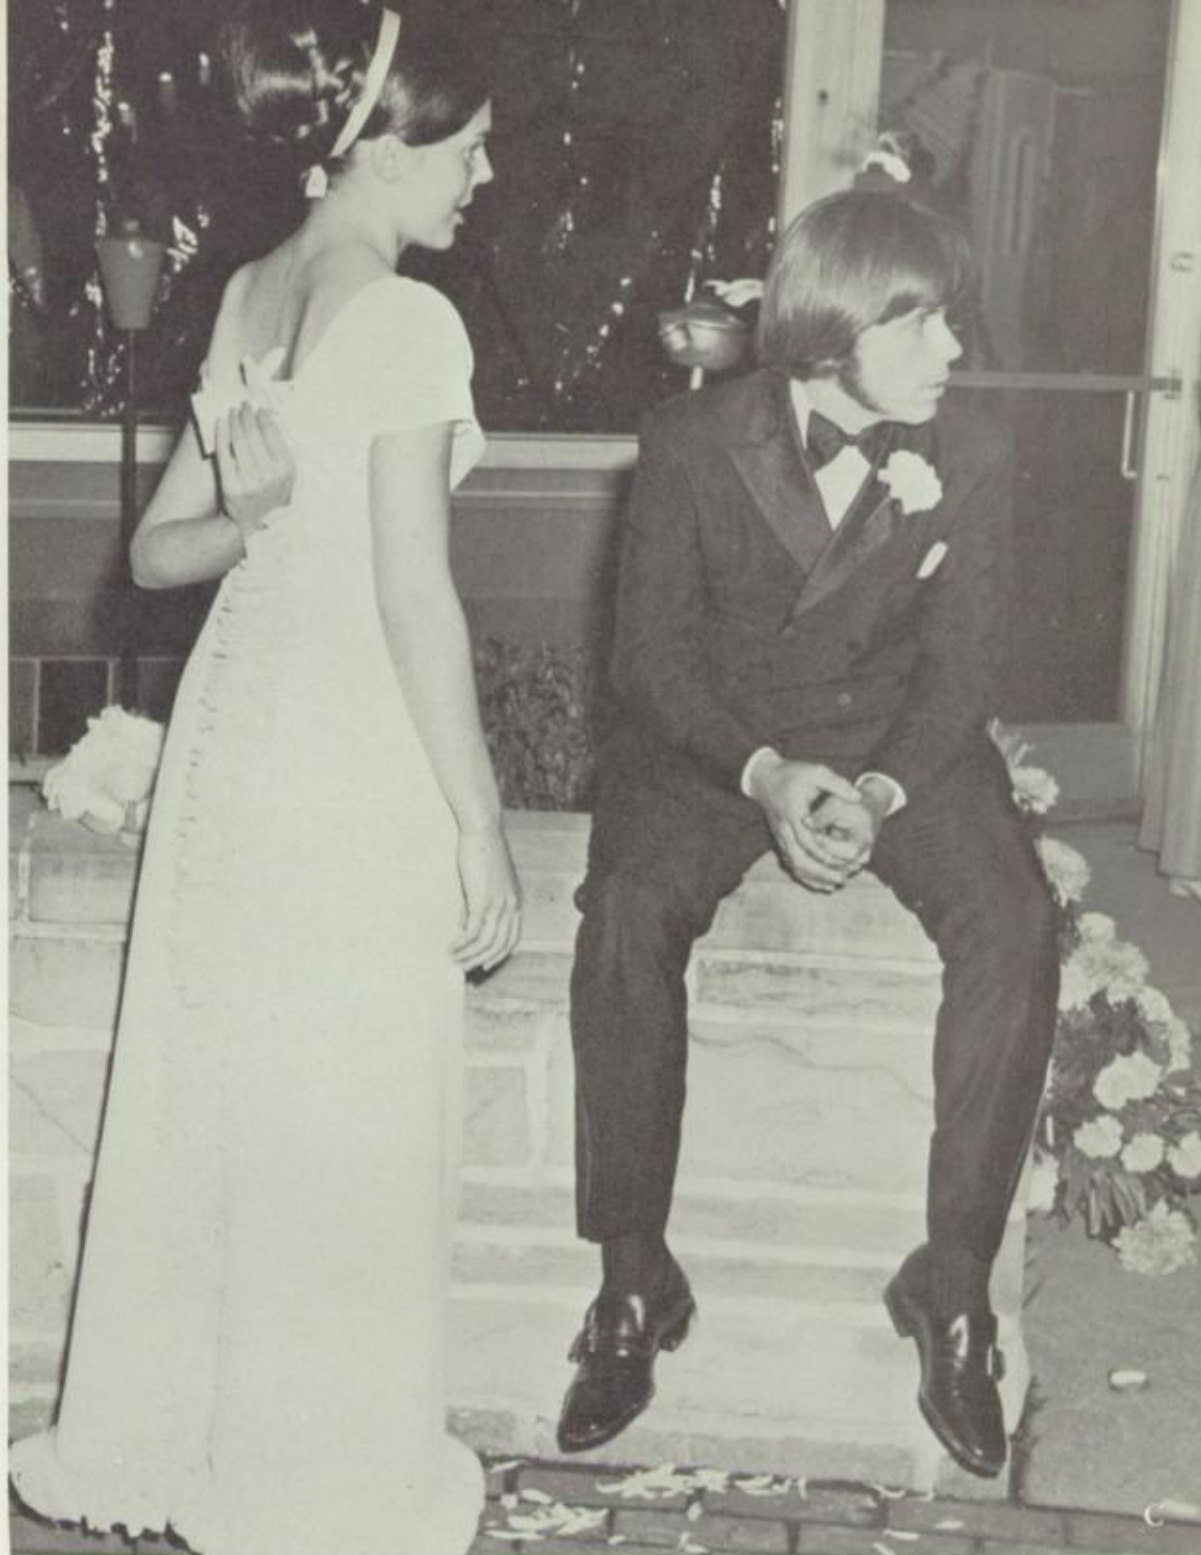

A buffet dinner

Music and noise and laughter

A silver charm for the girls!

(A) Judy Pekar and her escort pose for pictures. (B) Debbie Rose and Joan Koptish introduce their escorts. (C) Linda Ulman and Jim are caught relaxing. (D) Deb and Joe seem very happy. (E) Cyndy seems to be relaxing after her job of sophomore server. (F) Bob and Debbie are tired of dancing. (G) Escorts get something to eat.

Joe Friscone just released the ball (a). Walt Steppenbecker (b) sure has an odd way of releasing the ball. Steve Unger, (c) gets points by pole vaulting. George Wagner (d) beats two South guys at the finish. And last Steve Benson (e) star runner seems to be all alone, because no one can catch up to him.

With individual, a team wins events; without depth, a team loses meets. That tends to summarize the Meteor's track fortunes for the '70 season.

The team's individual standout was distance runner Steve Benson. Steve ran a 1:57.4 half mile for a new school record plus a 4:18.5 mile. His mile not only is a record, but gave him a fourth place in state competition.

Another new standout was established by our mile relay composed of seniors Joe Ringler and George Wagner, Junior Mike O'Neal, and sophomore Greg McFadden. This team performed with great consistency over the season and earned a trip to Columbus with Steve.

George Wagner also set a new record in the 200 yard dash with a 22.4 and Rod Cajka ran to a record 20.9 in the 180 yd. low hurdles.

These records are fine achievements, but there are eighteen events in a track meet.

Senior Salute

Senior salute is a tradition that brings together all the students and teachers at Midpark to recognize the success of the senior class. The seniors enter the gym and are seated before the rest of the school to receive awards and honors that mark their achievements scholastically, athletically, and in community activities. The class Will is read, reminding Midpark of all the things that made it Midpark in 1969-1970. Senior Salute is a time to recognize the greatness of Midpark.

High school does not just stop. It has to have an ending, an ending that is also a beginning. The seniors take part in several ceremonies that stress the significance of graduation. At Baccalaureate, on June 7, the senior class assembles, in caps and gowns, in Midpark's auditorium to bring the past and the future together.

Midpark's May Dance personified the image of spring, as did the girls who were chosen to be the spring court. They were shophomore attendant, Joanne Falkowski, Junior attendant, Jerri Miller, and seniors, Cyndy Abram, Laurie Hawkins, Lynn Perry, and Mary Sebestyen. They were nominated by the spring sports teams. Those who attended the dance voted to select a May Queen. Cyndy Abram was selected and she reigned at the dance accompanied by the music of the Silk.

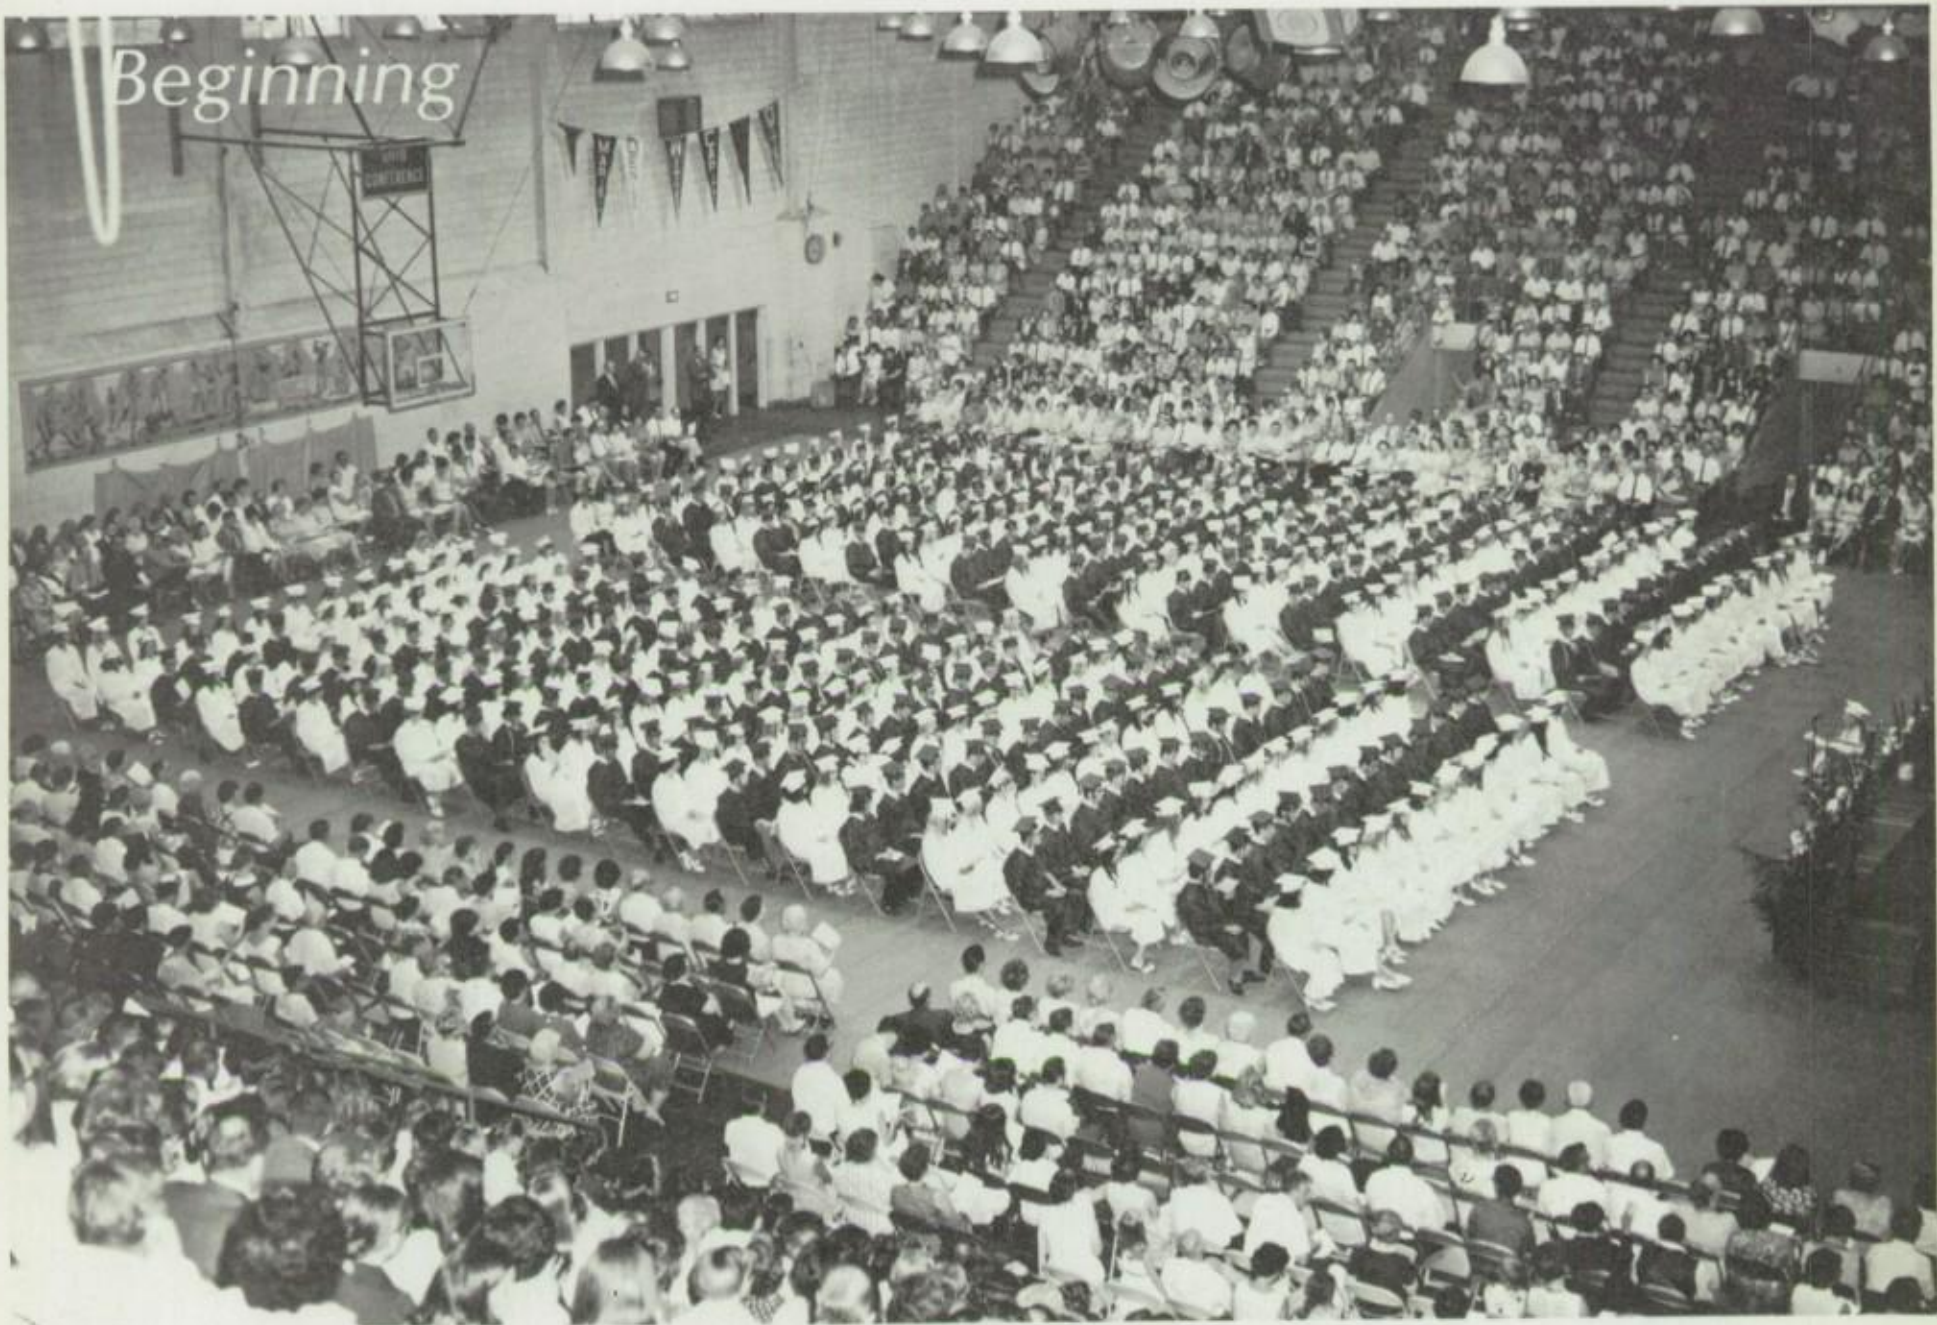

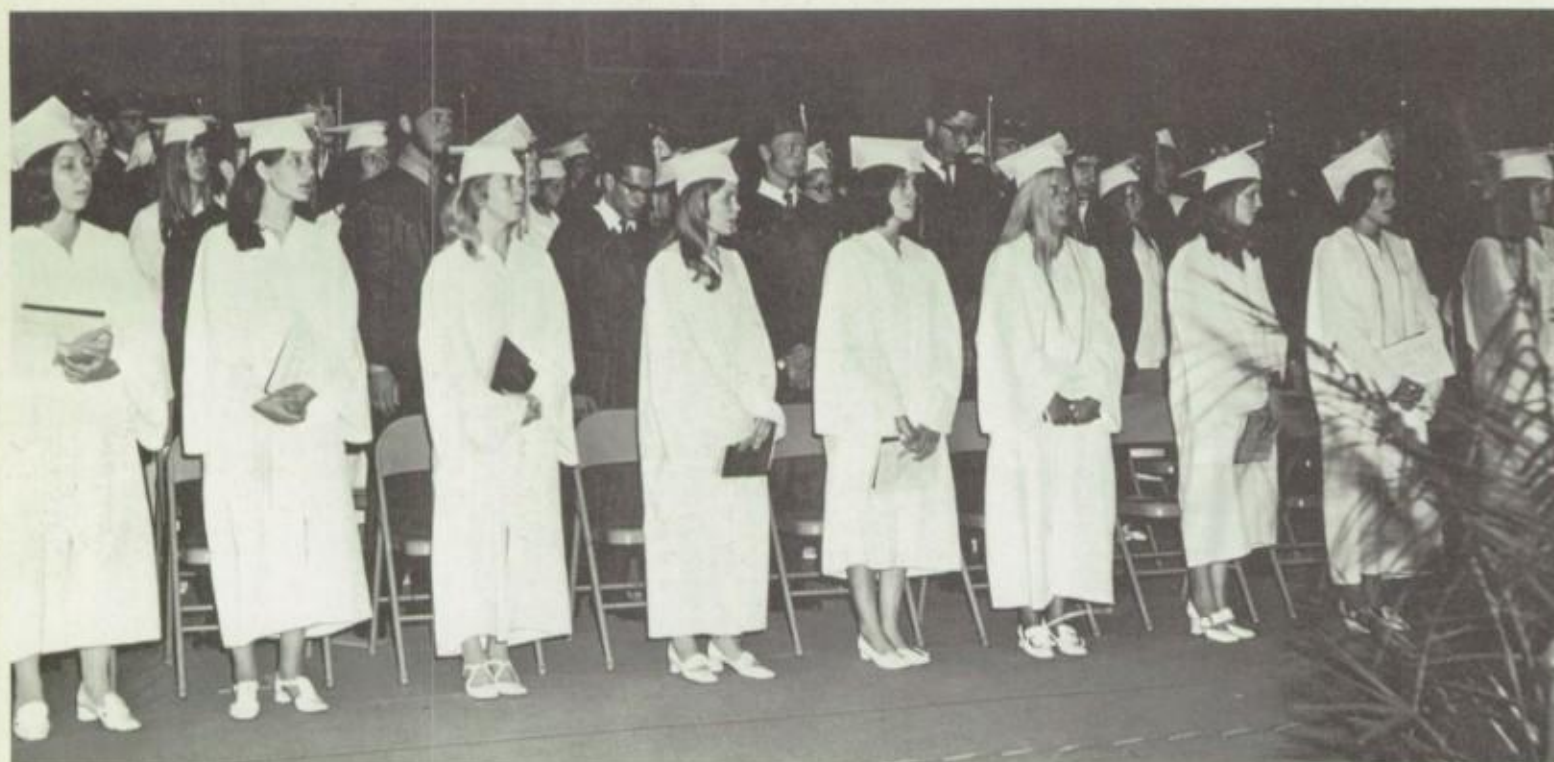

May Queen 1970

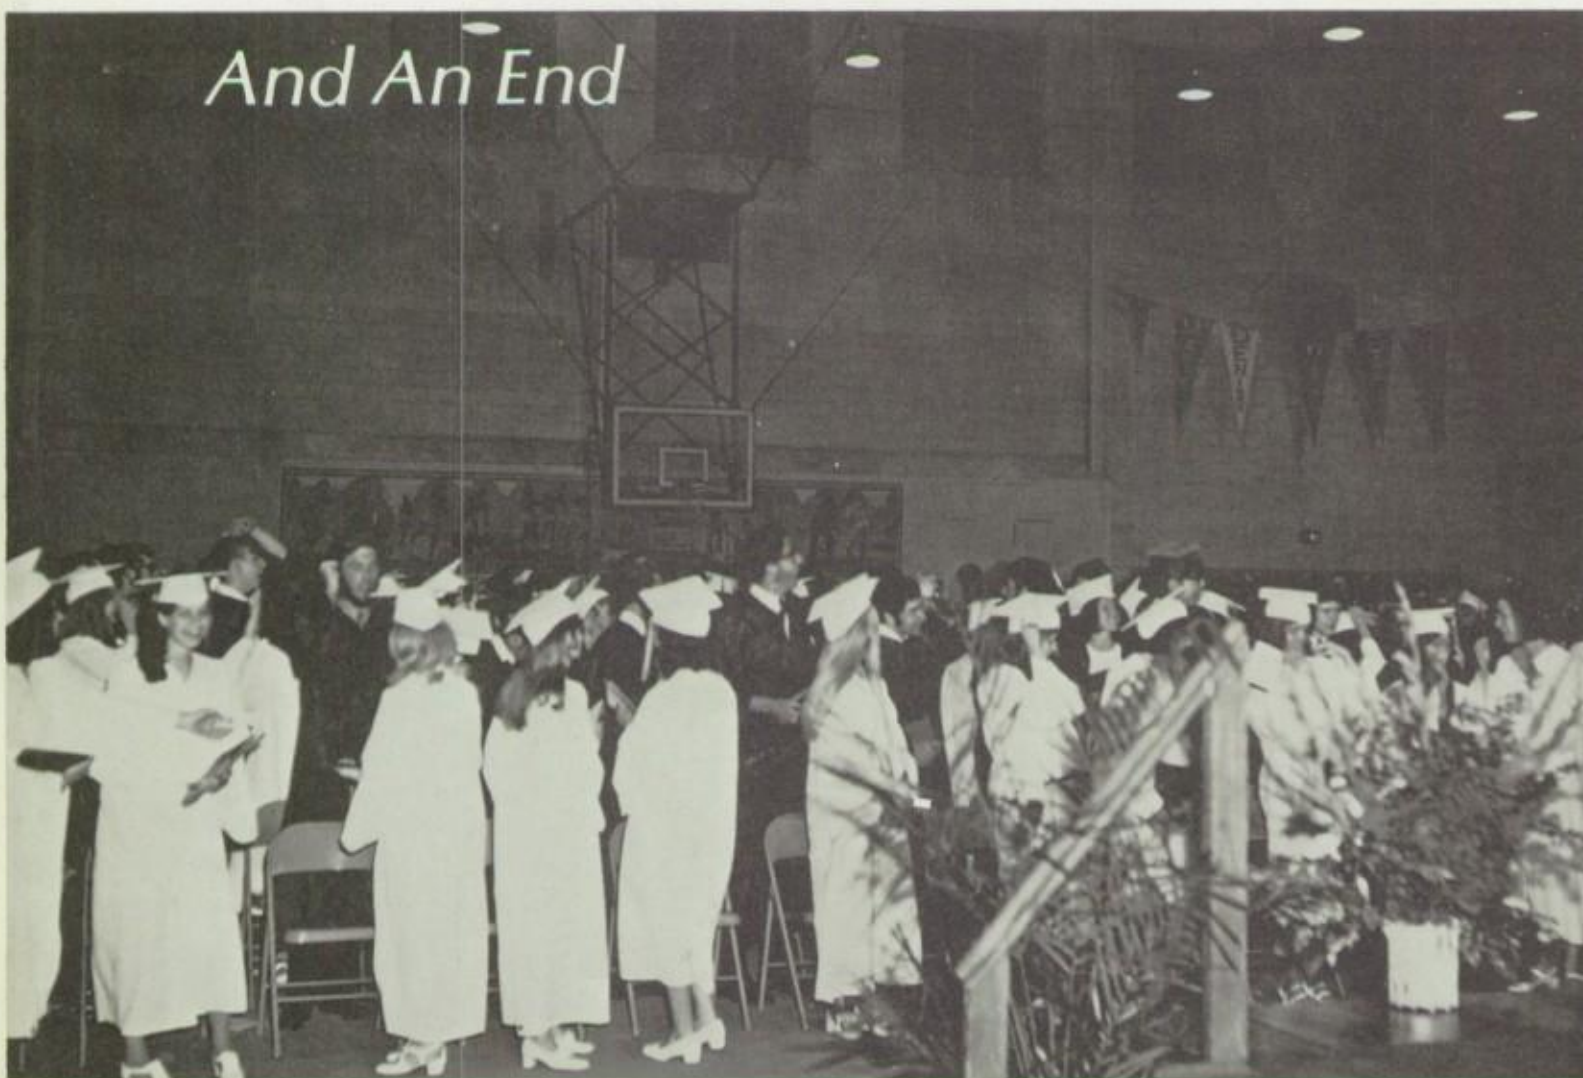

Commencement

And An End

Graduation ends the high school years for the senior class. About 500 students will enter BW gym on June 10, 1970 to receive their diplomas. Before parents, teachers, and friends they will recall their high school years and look forward into the years that will come.

Band Has A "1"

Midpark's band and choir again proved that their school is filled with talent and a willingness to work hard. In State competition, the band received all superior ratings and the choir received all excellent ratings. Midpark can be proud of the spirit and desire that members of the band and choir and their directors showed in the hours of practice and preparation that preceded the competition.
